Reggae music really chills me out in my dressing-room before I head on stage.

~Ella Henderson

My parents brought me up on all different styles of music, like my Mum would listen to Motown R&B and my Dad was quite 80's driven, so I was always surrounded by music growing up.

~Ella Henderson

I definitely love music that's coming out now, there's some really exciting fresh artists coming through which is really cool. I guess it's from old and new, where my influences are based.

I think we've all got a mirror man in our life - male, female, it's someone who love themselves before they can love anyone else.

Most of the time I write my best songs just from feeling a strong emotion, so whether I'm just really angry or really sad or really happy, I immediately sit down at a piano and I begin writing a song.

By the time I was ten or eleven, I had a song-book and I was writing everything down. It used to just be my hobby but now it's like my diary, it's where I can go in my own little bubble.

I just love making sounds. Anything that made a sound, as a kid I was just taken back by and would sit with it for ages and just try and make all different sounds on it.

The simple questions are always the hardest ones.

~Ella Henderson

When I do my vocal warm-ups everyone calls me the dolphin because I do stupid siren noises.

~Ella Henderson

I always feel like when I've listened to a great song I know it, 'cuz it's the only time I'll ever get goosebumps or something like that.

A piano in the house, when I came home from school and was able to play all these different notes with all these different sounds, I really found that fascinating.

To do a world tour with my album, that would be really incredible. I love travelling, and I love travelling through my music.

~Ella Henderson

I love reggae music; reggae music's like my go-to.

Each time that I think you go, I turn around and you're creeping in.

~Ella Henderson

I think a lot of people assume from my music and stuff I'm constantly talking about deep and meaningful things, but then with my friends I'm just a class clown.

From an early age I've written songs and played the piano.

I started playing the piano from the age of three and I started teaching myself; we always had a piano round the house.
