We have nothing to fear for the future, except as we shall forget the way the Lord has led us, and His teaching in our past history.

~Ellen G. White

Talk unbelief, and you will have unbelief; but talk faith, and you will have faith. According to the seed sown will be the harvest.

~Ellen G. White

It is not earthly rank, nor birth, nor nationality, nor religious privilege, which proves that we are members of the family of God; it is love, a love that embraces all humanity.

~Ellen G. White

Our heavenly Father has a thousand ways to provide for us, of which we know nothing.

~Ellen G. White

We are all woven together in the great web of humanity, and whatever we can do to benefit and uplift others will reflect in blessing upon ourselves.

~Ellen G. White

Whatever attracts the mind from God, whatever draws the affections away from Christ, is an enemy to the soul.

~Ellen G. White

A modest, godly woman will dress modestly. . . The one who is simple and unpretending in her dress and in her manners shows that she understands that a true woman is characterized by moral worth.

~Ellen G. White

Pure air, good water, sunshine, the beautiful surroundings of nature...these are God's means for restoring the sick to health.

~Ellen G. White

Next to the Bible, nature is to be our great lesson book.

~Ellen G. White

The things of nature are the Lord's silent ministers, given to us to teach us spiritual truths. They speak to us of the love of God and declare the wisdom of the great Master Artist.

~Ellen G. White

The sin which is indulged to the greatest extent, and which separates us from God and produces so many contagious spiritual disorders, is selfishness.

~Ellen G. White

Why the Christian life is so difficult to many is because they have a divided heart. They are double-minded, which makes them unstable in all their ways.

~Ellen G. White

A person whose mind is quiet and satisfied in God is in the pathway to health.

~Ellen G. White

All our words and actions pass in review before God.

~Ellen G. White

God requires his people to shine as lights in the world. It is not merely the ministers who are required to do this, but every disciple of Christ. Their conversation should be heavenly.

~Ellen G. White

None are so sinful that they cannot find strength, purity, and righteousness in Jesus, who died for them.

~Ellen G. White

But God will have a people upon the earth to maintain the Bible, and the Bible only, as the standard of all doctrines and the basis of all reforms.

~Ellen G. White

The spirit of Christ is a missionary spirit.

~Ellen G. White

A kind, courteous Christian is the most powerful argument in favor of the gospel that can be produced.

~Ellen G. White

Pure air, sunlight, abstemiousness, rest, exercise, proper diet, the use of water, trust in Divine power-these are the true remedies.

~Ellen G. White

Talents used are talents multiplied.

~Ellen G. White

All the riches of the world are not of sufficient value to redeem one perishing soul.

~Ellen G. White

If you lose Heaven, you lose everything; if you gain Heaven, you gain everything.

~Ellen G. White

The people are hungry for the bread of life. Do not offer them a stone.

~Ellen G. White

As we lay hold upon the truth of God, its influence must affect us. It must elevate us. It must remove from us every imperfection.

~Ellen G. White

Nature is the mirror of divinity.

~Ellen G. White

If the life we live in this world is wholly for Christ, it is a life of daily surrender.

~Ellen G. White

The life of Christ was a life of humble simplicity, yet how infinitely exalted was his mission. Christ is our example in all things.

~Ellen G. White

It is a universal principle that whenever one refuses to use his God-given powers, these powers decay and perish.

~Ellen G. White

The words of the Bible, and the Bible alone, should be heard from the pulpit.

~Ellen G. White

The Saviour would have passed through the agony of Calvary that one might be saved in His kingdom. He will never abandon one for whom He has died.

~Ellen G. White

True love is a high and holy principle, altogether different in character from that love which is awakened by impulse and which suddenly dies when severely tested.

~Ellen G. White

Every act, every deed of justice and mercy and benevolence, makes heavenly music in Heaven.

~Ellen G. White

Whatsoever is done out of pure love, be it ever so little or contemptible

in the sight of men, is wholly fruitful; for God measures more with how much love one worketh, than the amount he doeth.

~Ellen G. White

True beauty of dress consists in its simplicity . . . What do these devotees of fashion gain? Only the satisfaction of being admired, like a butterfly.

~Ellen G. White

Flesh-meats will depreciate the blood. Cook meat with spices, and eat it with rich cakes and pies, and you have a bad quality of blood.

~Ellen G. White

Turn, O backsliding children, saith the Lord; for I am married unto you.

~Ellen G. White

There are orphans who can be cared for; but this some will not venture to undertake; for it brings them more work than they care to do, leaving them but little time for their own pleasure.

~Ellen G. White

God tests and proves us by the common occurrences of life. It is the little things which reveal the chapters of the heart.

~Ellen G. White

Why should the sons and daughters of God be reluctant to pray, when prayer is the key in the hand of faith to unlock heaven's storehouse, where are treasured the boundless resources of Omnipotence.

~Ellen G. White

It is a fearful mistake for us to neglect the study of the Bible to investigate theories that are misleading, diverting minds from the words of Christ to fallacies of human production.

~Ellen G. White

The ministers of Christ should possess refinement. All uncouth manners, attitudes and gestures should be discarded, and they should encourage in themselves humble dignity of bearing.

~Ellen G. White

Do not sit down in Satan's easy chair of do-little, but arise and aim at the elevated standard which it is your privilege to attain.

~Ellen G. White

God's promises are all on condition of humble obedience.

~Ellen G. White

I would warn my brethren and sisters to never flatter persons because of their ability; for they cannot bear it. Self is easily exalted, and in consequence, persons lose their balance.

~Ellen G. White

Those who use tobacco, tea and coffee should lay these idols aside, and put their cost into the treasury of the Lord.

~Ellen G. White

Fixed principles of truth are the only safeguard for youth.

~Ellen G. White

Singing is as much an act of worship as is prayer.

~Ellen G. White

The existing confusion of conflicting creeds and sects is fitly represented by the term "Babylon," which prophecy (Revelation 14:8) applies to the world-loving churches of the last days.

~Ellen G. White

In the prayer of faith there is a divine science; it is a science that everyone who would make his lifework a success must understand.

~Ellen G. White

Water is the best liquid possible to cleanse the tissues.... Drink some, a little time before or after a meal.

~Ellen G. White

We should strive to understand the weakness of others.

~Ellen G. White

Be what you wish your children to be. Parents have perpetuated by precept and example their own stamp of character to their posterity.

~Ellen G. White

In Christ was united the human and the divine. His mission was to reconcile God to man, and man to God; to unite the finite with the infinite.

~Ellen G. White

Nature utters her voice in lessons of heavenly wisdom and eternal truth.

~Ellen G. White

Exercise will aid in the work of digestion. Take a walk after a meal; but no violent exercise after a full meal.

~Ellen G. White

Ministers of God's choosing are engaged in a great work. They are warring not merely against men, but Satan and his angels.

~Ellen G. White

Satan well knows that success can only attend order and harmonious action. He well knows that every thing connected with Heaven is in perfect order.

~Ellen G. White

God Himself was crucified with Christ, for Christ was one with the Father.

~Ellen G. White

True generosity is too frequently eaten up by prosperity and riches.

~Ellen G. White

The righteousness by which we are justified is imputed; the righteousness by which we are sanctified is imparted. The first is our title to heaven, the second is our fitness for heaven.

~Ellen G. White

Satan has many helpers.

~Ellen G. White

Every man who praises himself brushes the luster from his best efforts.

~Ellen G. White

Who can measure the love Christ felt for a lost world, as he hung upon the cross, suffering for the sins of guilty men? This love was immeasurable. It was infinite.

~Ellen G. White

We are not our own. We do not belong to ourselves. But we have been purchased with a dear price. We have cost an immense sum, even the sufferings and death of the Son of God.

~Ellen G. White

There is one straight chain of truth without one heretical sentence in that which I have written.

~Ellen G. White

God has set up a high standard of righteousness. He has made plain a distinction between human and divine wisdom. All who work on Christ's side must work to save, not to destroy.

~Ellen G. White

The Jews did not go into darkness all at once. It was a gradual work, until they could not discern the gift of God in sending his Son.

~Ellen G. White

The strongest argument in favor of the gospel is a loving and lovable Christian.

~Ellen G. White

Those who are devoted to amusements; who love the society of those who love pleasure, have an aversion to religious exercises.

~Ellen G. White

There shall be no more sin, neither shall there be any more death.

~Ellen G. White

We must hold fast to the truths which we have already received; we must not look with suspicion upon any new light that God may send.

~Ellen G. White

Unceasing prayer is the unbroken union of the soul with God, so that life from God flows into our life; and from our life, purity and holiness flow back to God.

~Ellen G. White

Religion will prove to the believer a comforter and a sure guide to the fountain of true happiness.

~Ellen G. White

In regard to infallibility, I never claimed it; God alone is infallible. His word is true, and in Him is no variableness, or shadow of turning.

~Ellen G. White

Dying legacies are a miserable substitute for living benevolence.

~Ellen G. White

The Bible is our rule of faith and doctrine.

~Ellen G. White

Ministers should impress upon the people the necessity of individual effort. No church can flourish unless its members are workers. The people must lift where the ministers lift.

~Ellen G. White

Heaven is all health.

~Ellen G. White

Thread of Selfishness in Web of Life.â€”Deuteronomy contains much instruction regarding what the law is to us, and the relation we shall sustain to God as we reverence and obey

~Ellen G. White

God designed that the living machinery should be in daily activity. For in this activity or motion is its preserving power.... The more we exercise, the better will be the circulation of the blood.

~Ellen G. White

God requires you individually to come up to the point, to make an entire surrender. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

~Ellen G. White

All the food that is put into the stomach that the system cannot derive benefit from, is a burden to nature in her work.

~Ellen G. White

Lightness, jesting, and joking, can only be indulged at the expense of barrenness of soul, and the loss of the favor of God.

~Ellen G. White

Our clothing, while modest and simple, should be of good quality . . . It should be chosen for durability rather than display.

~Ellen G. White

Music, when turned to a good account, is a blessing. When abused, it leads the unconsecrated to pride, vanity, and folly, and becomes one of Satan 's most attractive agencies to ensnare souls.

~Ellen G. White

We do not mark out any precise line to be followed in diet; but we do say that in countries where there are fruits, grains, and nuts in abundance, flesh food is not the right food for God's people.

~Ellen G. White

Gather every promise. This is Jesus, the life of every grace, the life of every promise, the life of every ordinance, the life of every blessing.

~Ellen G. White

Religion does not consist in making a noise, yet when the soul is filled with the Spirit of the Lord, sweet, heart-felt praise to God glorifies him.

~Ellen G. White

Moderate exercise every day will impart strength to the muscles, which without exercise become flabby and enfeebled.

~Ellen G. White

Perfect health depends upon perfect circulation.

~Ellen G. White

It is a religious duty for those who cook to learn how to prepare food in different ways, hygienically, for the table, so that it may be eaten with enjoyment.

~Ellen G. White

Events in the train of prophecy that had their fulfillment away in the past are made future, and thus by these theories the faith of some is undermined.

~Ellen G. White

Faith in the atonement and intercession of Christ will keep us steadfast and immovable amid the temptations that press upon us in the church militant.

~Ellen G. White

The Bible is God's great lesson book.

~Ellen G. White

Ministers have received their wages, and some have their minds too much on their wages. They labor for wages, and lose sight of the sacredness and importance of the work.

~Ellen G. White

Youth without beauty is half a prize.

~Ellen G. White

It is the chief joy of all holy beings to witness the joy and happiness of those around them.

~Ellen G. White

All spiritual things are to be treated with sacred dignity. Humility and meekness are in accordance with the life of Christ, but they are to be shown in a dignified way.

~Ellen G. White

We must let patience have its perfect work, remembering that there are precious promises in the Scriptures for those who wait upon the Lord.
