I feel more confident if my makeup looks good.

~Ellie Goulding

How long will I love you? As long as stars are above you, And longer if I may

~Ellie Goulding

I feel like my figure is a challenge because I'm quite flat chested but I've got a booty so I've got to look for the right things.

~Ellie Goulding

One of the most powerful feelings in the world is after a really, really long run.

~Ellie Goulding

I take inspiration from everything around me, also relationships and friends. And the inside of my crazy head.

~Ellie Goulding

I believe in the moment of things and fate and things happening for a reason, so I write things down and I trust it.

~Ellie Goulding

My soul is to sell. The dark is too hard to beat 'cause they're calling me.

~Ellie Goulding

Even if a relationship doesn't work out, you can always take something positive from something negative. You never know what's around the corner.

~Ellie Goulding

What people don't understand is that how you are as an artist depends on how you are emotionally.

~Ellie Goulding

Apparently I'm introspective... levelheaded... but at the same time, absolutely insane.

~Ellie Goulding

I've just become quite fixated on the idea of calmness and peacefulness somewhere, someday.

~Ellie Goulding

I feel quite proud to be an ambassador for women who realize that being fit is better than being skinny.

~Ellie Goulding

You can be the happiest you can be in a relationship but can have an urge to be with someone else. I know a lot of people that it has happened to.

~Ellie Goulding

I guess I'm just quite observant and I pay attention to a lot of things. Human behavior really fascinates me.

~Ellie Goulding

I just sing and write songs and wear what I want. It's quite a good job really. If I wanted to I suppose I could become more of a fashion icon, but singing is my thing.

~Ellie Goulding

My guiltiest pleasure is... chocolates with strawberry cream and trashy television - 'Geordie Shore,' 'Katie,' etc.

~Ellie Goulding

The nature of how we are as human beings is that we're much more interested in being critical rather than praising something.

~Ellie Goulding

I feel like my songs are very relevant and very meaningful, but I literally have to get rid of the nostalgia for shows because I would just be mess on-stage otherwise.

~Ellie Goulding

I'd just like to think that there's some kind of underworld where whoever's been lost at sea is there... I dunno, there probably isn't, but I'd like to believe there is.

~Ellie Goulding

My fans are so funny, they make me laugh so much. I've got some really, really, funny, clever fans.

~Ellie Goulding

It took time to really build myself a reputation as a good live performer, a musician and an artist.

~Ellie Goulding

I've changed the way I look a bit but not intentionally. I've cut my hair. I've got a bit of pink in it and lately I've become a bit monochrome, wearing a lot of black and white.

~Ellie Goulding

I still don't know if I can write songs. I don't think anyone ever knows if they can write songs.

~Ellie Goulding

I'm never happy with my face, my hair, I haven't really got any boobs and I'm not really that tall.

~Ellie Goulding

Ever since I've been young I've been fascinated by the human body.

I've written songs about it, but you can become quite morbid if you think about it too much - paranoid and a hypochondriac.

~Ellie Goulding

I tend to write things and review it afterwards and realise what comes out. I very rarely ever write something and have to take it back.

~Ellie Goulding

I want to be safe in the knowledge that I can tour and play festivals for a long time. The main thing is that I want a good reputation as a live performer. If I have that, I'd be so happy.

~Ellie Goulding

I could always sing, from a really young age, but my voice was really weird. I used to make my mum turn up the radio every day in our house. She was well into music so I got that from her.

~Ellie Goulding

I believe that when you have fans, they invest in you not just as a singer but as a person as well. It's not enough to just have good songs and a good voice.

~Ellie Goulding

It's so important to take vitamins. People always get ill on tour because of the close proximity in the bus with everyone.

~Ellie Goulding

My favourite people to follow on Twitter are... my fans. They make me laugh so much and keep me smiling.

~Ellie Goulding

I love prints of skulls and bones and have some taxidermy - a crow and a rabbit - to remind me of home. I like art and have a big portrait of Bjork.

~Ellie Goulding

I used to be obsessed with Pearl Jam, but I love having pink hair and kind of looking like a Barbie.

~Ellie Goulding

Bjork, I'd love to do something with her. I'd love to do some sort of crazy orchestral choir thing with her.

~Ellie Goulding

Because I've always been a runner I love to feel that my body is shining on the inside. I wear baggy clothes, so it's not as though I like showing it off. I just like to know I'm great on the inside.

~Ellie Goulding

I want to be more like Pixie Lott. She works really hard but always manages to keep smiling. She never complains.

~Ellie Goulding

I guess I started running when I was about 18 and... I feel like it assists my creativity a bit because it completely just flushes everything out.

~Ellie Goulding

I wrote a lot of poetry that was based on stories of the sea and I was really inspired by that.

~Ellie Goulding

Even when I'm in quite a happy state of mind, I like writing really sad songs. I think a lot of people do.

~Ellie Goulding

I can fall in love in a simple way, but I can dissect it in such an intense fashion when it ends.

~Ellie Goulding

I like the idea about somewhere there being a world... somewhere there's a world that I don't know about. But also, that somewhere, there was once something that disappeared.

~Ellie Goulding

You should constantly write because your writing is always evolving and progressing. It's really important to start writing young.

~Ellie Goulding

I would never create an image for myself; I'm not that clever.

~Ellie Goulding

I was quite a weird kid because I didn't like getting presents. I don't know why. I just went for books all the time.

~Ellie Goulding

You get to a certain age and you can't judge yourself on your dad or your parents.

~Ellie Goulding

I love pink - pink's my favourite. I hardly ever - weirdly - wear it, but I love the colour pink.

~Ellie Goulding

The very first song I wrote was about a boy that I was obsessed with.

~Ellie Goulding

Something funny always happens in every show in the UK and I genuinely love touring the UK because it's where I'm from. I just get a warm feeling when I'm home.

~Ellie Goulding

Not much shocked me. You know, I worked in a home for Alzheimer's patients and my dad used to be really into murders and stuff, so I saw dead bodies. It desensitised me to a lot of things.

~Ellie Goulding

Now, if some panic hits me, you have to sort of be friends with your body, it's like your body will work against you.

~Ellie Goulding

My mum was too busy raising four of us to encourage my hopes. But I'm glad I had the upbringing I did. It made me a worrier and a thoughtful, curious person.

~Ellie Goulding

The only day I remember of my parents' marriage was the day my dad walked out. As I stood there at five years old, with my older sister and younger brother, I knew that he was gone.

~Ellie Goulding

I think I'd like to be best friends with Björk, because I'd like to pick her brain a lot all the time and just have weird times together.

~Ellie Goulding

I played recorder in assembly, then I became passionate about the guitar, I don't know why. I started on electric then moved to acoustic - my brother was playing bass in the next room.

~Ellie Goulding

Christmas in L.A. is weird. There's no snow. It's not even cold.

~Ellie Goulding

America saw me as a projection of me that I always wanted. That's why I love going to America so much. I feel like I started off in America exactly how I wanted to start everywhere.

~Ellie Goulding

Lauryn Hill is quite political and is very bold and isn't afraid of wearing her heart on her sleeve, and same with Bjork, except she is a little bit more kind of fragile.

~Ellie Goulding

There are so many things to think about when you make an album. Like, who am I trying to impress? Am I going to get respect, critical acclaim? Or am I going to sell lots of records?

~Ellie Goulding

I find male singers and what they sing about fascinating. It makes me realize how little we know about ourselves and how little I know about myself. It's interesting to see the male perspective.

~Ellie Goulding

My fancy dress costume of choice is... something 1920s or 30s, when there was still so much elegance and attention to detail. An excuse for ultimate dressing-up indulgence.

~Ellie Goulding

Mumford & Sons' music appeals to a lot of America. I'm really proud of them.

~Ellie Goulding

I wish I could have hung out with Patti Smith in the seventies, and also have some crazy times.

~Ellie Goulding

I love designer stuff but like it will only be like, on a whim. I love Alexander Wang so much, but it's expensive.

~Ellie Goulding

I definitely write about a lot of dreamy, surreal stuff. I do end up going to a surreal world with my music, but I also like the idea of there being really real stuff as well.

~Ellie Goulding

I'd call what I do pop music, but it's folky and electronic and it doesn't really sound like much else.

~Ellie Goulding

I like being by the ocean.

~Ellie Goulding

I've always said that Adele has turned so many people on to British singers - whether female singers or just like music from this country in general.

~Ellie Goulding

Men are wary of me because they know, by listening to my music, that a relationship with me will be quite deep.

~Ellie Goulding

I start really missing London when I go away. I have a little flat, but very central. I live above a pub and you'd think it'd be a nightmare, but I like hearing the music and it's quite comforting.

~Ellie Goulding

I was super brainy and a proper geek at school, but there would always be a boy. But that sort of obsession did turn me into a songwriter. My writing has always come from that feeling of infatuation.

~Ellie Goulding

My hairdresser in the U.K., Adam Reed, has his own line, Percy and Reed, and it's really good. And I use Moroccan Oil and Kerastase as well.

~Ellie Goulding

The smallest changes, like I stopped eating meat and I've been doing different kinds of exercise like Yoga and stuff like that, little changes have made me feel a bit more at peace I think.

~Ellie Goulding

I was the first person to go to university from my family.

~Ellie Goulding

I've never wanted to be a star, I never wanted to be a famous person or anything like that, and I think my fans know that as well.

~Ellie Goulding

When I heard Bjork's debut, that was when I first realized that I could be a singer, even with my unusual voice.

~Ellie Goulding

I think hype is a good thing. You need it and it'll teach you valuable things and you'll grow stronger, which is what I've done.

~Ellie Goulding

I think, it is a challenge to get critics or whoever to see past what you wear and makeup and the way you look and just concentrate on the music.

~Ellie Goulding

You never know what to expect. You don't just walk on and expect an amazing reaction.

~Ellie Goulding

I'm a bit of a like girly-girl, really, I like flowery stuff.
