I just think that people are so weird about nudity and the human body. Sex is not bad, naked bodies are not bad and naked bodies don't always have to be connected to sex.

~Emily Browning

I tend to over-analyse things. I'm not the type of person to flip a coin and let things happen.

~Emily Browning

I felt much better when I started to become myself a bit more and to spend time with people who I genuinely liked as opposed to the people I felt I should be spending time with.

~Emily Browning

Affairs are loaded with romanticism, morality, mythology, and intense emotions. They're not really about sex, but about pain and fear and the desire to feel alive. They're also about betrayal.

~Emily Browning

My job is to portray real human beings and real human experiences, and if I haven't had a real human experience myself outside of the film industry, how am I going to be able to do that?

~Emily Browning

I'd rather make an interesting film that gets people talking, that maybe some people hate, than make the kind of 'entertaining' film that everyone feels ambivalent about.

~Emily Browning

I'm into video games, but only real specific lame video games.

~Emily Browning

A strange thing happens to me that I'm sure happens to a lot of actors when the camera starts rolling. I'm not 'me' any more.

~Emily Browning

I'm a very private person. I find it very daunting to have to give private parts of myself away to people, you know?

~Emily Browning

'Sailor Moon' was my favorite cartoon of all time, and I'm still kind of obsessed with it. I own all the DVDs to watch it at home.

~Emily Browning

With young people, there's often that carelessness, allowing yourself to get into danger - recklessness, I suppose.

~Emily Browning

It doesn't really matter what people think of me, I should just be connecting with people I really like instead of pretending to be the perfect version of myself.

~Emily Browning

I'm torn. I want an 'R' (rating) because we can get a lot of cool scenes into it, but then I like the idea of younger girls being able to see it.

~Emily Browning

It is frustrating when in an interview people say: 'Give us your make-up tips' and 'How do you stay skinny?' I think: 'Do you ask a guy that?'

~Emily Browning

For me it would be unhealthy to be a method actor; I'm not mentally stable enough for that - I need to separate my two worlds.

~Emily Browning

I'm into video games, but only real specific lame video games. In a more traditional nerd sense, I just read lots of books and I enjoyed school.

~Emily Browning

Often, people who want to make interesting films simply don't have the money to do it.

~Emily Browning

After Hollywood, you know if people are interested in you or in the fact that you've been in a movie. You know who your real friends are.

~Emily Browning

I usually hate going around and doing press. It sort of stresses me out.

~Emily Browning

For me, I see filmmaking as art.

~Emily Browning

I've been acting since I was a kid, so I just feel confident in the fact that I can do it to some degree. I've never thought I was amazing; I've just thought, 'I know this, I can do it.'

~Emily Browning

I've actually got turned down for a lot of roles because I'm not bubbly enough. People have told me to be more 'up', but I can't, really. I find it hard to be smiley and giggly all the time.

~Emily Browning

What we do to ourselves to look a certain way is crazy.

~Emily Browning

I was lucky - the first eight productions I auditioned for, I got cast.

~Emily Browning

I prefer to make a film that people have a really intense reaction to than have a film that people feel ambivalent about.

~Emily Browning

I feel like in Australia, all the films I've done, we're all equal moving parts in this equation of making the film - an actor is another crew member, essentially.

~Emily Browning

Being from Australia, I've never even touched a gun. It's so not a part of our culture.

~Emily Browning

I have to just worry about my own opinion and the opinions of the people I'm working with and people who are close to me.

~Emily Browning

When you act, you really have to give all of yourself, and if you're doing that purely for money, it's not healthy.

~Emily Browning

I can cry at the drop of a hat. I've always found that easier than laughing in films.
