Nudity is a problem for Americans. It disrupts our social exchange.

~Eric Fischl

If you worry about how good the art is, you're never going to make your own art.

~Eric Fischl

Be the holder of your own Nature. It is a joyful responsibility.

~Eric Fischl

A precision of composition and figuration is what I'm working toward. I've always felt viewers should have an experience without having to ask what the hell it was about.

~Eric Fischl

What experience has shown me is that it takes your life to become an artist.

~Eric Fischl

Art should create an experience.

~Eric Fischl

One of the things I love within music and within sports is how often musicians and athletes thank their audience. In the art world, you would never hear that.

~Eric Fischl

I think people who make objects like the distance; they're not there when the other person is taking it in.

~Eric Fischl

Connecting to something keeps our empathy alive.

~Eric Fischl

Artists of my generation were not educated. We were not given the equipment because it was generally believed to be irrelevant.

~Eric Fischl

Abstraction is an esoteric language.

~Eric Fischl

Connecting to another is one of the most important things in the world and you can keep expanding that connection - one person, a family, a community, a country, a society, a culture.
