I have this personal affinity for the desert. I am fascinated by the desert. I love it.

~Erika Slezak

And at five o'clock in the morning we left to drive to Old Tucson, and I sat with my mouth open in the van. I was stunned by the beauty of that country.

~Erika Slezak

You know, if you think about it, the most powerful people on this earth probably never raise their voices - they just say it and people hop to, because they have that power.

~Erika Slezak

Fame and fortune are nothing if you're not happy and healthy.

~Erika Slezak

I might be doing a lot more theater, which is kind of what I love, but there's simply no time for.

~Erika Slezak

I haven't been on the stage in a long time.

~Erika Slezak

I've obviously made a very nice amount of money. I have a very nice lifestyle. I get to do what I love. Very few actors get to do that, and even fewer are lucky enough to work steadily for 24 years.

~Erika Slezak

My parents had a wonderful marriage, but it was a very dependent relationship. My mother was entirely dependent on my father because that's how it was in those days.

~Erika Slezak

Oh, God, I would love to go and do a play someplace.

~Erika Slezak

But also, it's a wonderful thing for children to see the birthing of puppies, to see nature at its best when it works and to have the experience of the puppies.

~Erika Slezak

If you have ever been in a real tragic or sad situation, the words that come out are hopelessly inadequate and kind of cliched.

~Erika Slezak

And I'm hoping that over the next 20, 50 years, whatever, the mystique of television and film and all that will diminish somewhat, and people will leave us alone to get on with our jobs.
