I think it's really important to follow your intuition and gut, and try not to do things just for the sake of pleasing other people.

~Erin Davie

Having a camera is a really easy and quick way to indulge in your creative side.

~Erin Davie

I'm a very spiritual person. And it affects my work greatly.

~Erin Davie

Everything is energy. It's physics. So I find the science of it all interesting; how 90% of stuff that's in our universe is made of stuff that we can't even measure. I find that fascinating.

~Erin Davie

I think what's important is to first have your life and then do your job.

~Erin Davie

People can have all the expectations that they want, but I know that you never know what's going to happen in life. Everything is part of the journey.

~Erin Davie

One of the things that fascinated people about the twins, and one of the first things that comes to people's minds when they see Siamese Twins is: well, how do you have sex?

~Erin Davie

Everybody feels like a freak in some way at some time in their life. Or feels on the outside. And everybody is worthy of love.

~Erin Davie

I certainly would never want to be normal. When people say, "You're weird," I usually take it as a compliment.

~Erin Davie

I think what scares people about not being normal is being ostracized for not being like other people. And that's hurtful when that happens.

~Erin Davie

A lot of times, just because people are different, they're judged. I try not to let that concern me. But sometimes it can be hurtful, because I do feel judged sometimes for being a little different.
