

Erin Wasson

Quotes

Thinking, Girl, People, Fashion, Want, Style, Believe, New York, Jeans, Real, Ideas, Antiques, Curly Hair, Clothes, Stylist, Trends, Designer, Hair, Cutting, Growing Up

I am rough around the edges, and I am not a polished girl.

~Erin Wasson

My style has always been very free, easy, relaxed, and slightly androgynous.

~Erin Wasson

I think we are living in a world that is too perfect and things are too retouched. I want to scream at the top of my lungs 'our imperfections are what make us special'

~Erin Wasson

I think a lot of people know me for just wearing cut-off denim shorts, an oversized white T-shirt with a pair of high-heels. I usually do wear basic stuff. Jeans and a white T is my go-to look.

~Erin Wasson

Each piece of jewellery tells a story of my life. Picking one particular piece as a favorite would be like taking a chapter out of a book.

~Erin Wasson

I've always been a girl with a massive opinion.

~Erin Wasson

My mother gave me a pair of diamond earrings when I was 13. It symbolised becoming a teenager. I also remember getting a collection of costume jewellery from my grandmother when I was in high school.

~Erin Wasson

When I find something at a flea market or an antique store, it feels more special and I'm more inclined to want to wear it.

~Erin Wasson

I'm always "shopping," because I think it's important to know what's out there.

~Erin Wasson

I really believe in keeping your canvas very basic and sort of adding the accouterments from there. I look at creating intrigue with outfits through accessories.

~Erin Wasson

My hair is wild and free, but I've always been told that [straight hair] is more polished, and a more polished version of yourself is a better version of yourself. That it's more professional.

~Erin Wasson

When you're comfortable, you're more confident - I really believe that. If you're walking around in a dress or a pair of shoes that are uncomfortable, it reads all over you.

~Erin Wasson

I love heights. I love speed. Im on the verge of being a pyromaniac. Maybe my phobia is boredom.

~Erin Wasson

I think people find it weird that I have a lot of long antique-lace dresses that I wear with boots.

~Erin Wasson

I don't like precious things; I don't spend thousands of dollars on jewellery for myself. I like going into a junk store and finding something for five dollars. That's my style.

~Erin Wasson

I'm really not into that super-crazy-colour, smiley-faces-on-the-front-of-your-dress look. That's not my thing. You're not going to see me in pink. Or anything frilly. Or a tutu. Or bows.

~Erin Wasson

I have literally just been in this place of zero fear. I just believe, as totally hippy bullsh*t as that sounds, anything's possible if you're willing to grab it and make it your own.

~Erin Wasson

I shop a lot more for furniture than I do for clothes. I much prefer going to an antique shop full of obscurities.

~Erin Wasson

I want to create a lifestyle niche for that cool girl who's really into fashion but not too obsessed with it.

~Erin Wasson

I love being a gypsy. Home is between New York and California.

~Erin Wasson

The people who really know me understand that I have a tough exterior, but I'm actually just a hippie at heart.

~Erin Wasson

I was a total jock growing up. I went to super-dorky basketball clinics and was handpicked to play on a state team called the Texas Heat.

~Erin Wasson

I've never been a girly-girl, never drawn to things that are fussy.

~Erin Wasson

When you aren't working, you really want to emulate the real version of yourself.

~Erin Wasson

I like the idea of not looking at trends, not being driven by them. I like what I like and that's it.

~Erin Wasson

I'm really a big believer in working with people. It's challenging for me to come into already integrated brands and find a way where I can put my own flair on it.

~Erin Wasson

To be given the reins of creativity is a beautiful thing when you're used to just showing up to a casting and standing there having clothes put on you.

~Erin Wasson

Life is full of all sorts of things, and I never expected to be a part of this. I never expected to be a model. I never expected to be a stylist. Or a designer. So you never know.

~Erin Wasson

I'm a big believer in doing what you've got to do, but taking a breather when you can.

~Erin Wasson

I wouldn't say I was really into fashion before modelling; I was into creation.

~Erin Wasson

Everything really needs to be paraben-free for me. I mean, because if I'm going to smoke cigarettes, then I need to be aware of all the other bullshit I'm putting into my body.

~Erin Wasson

I'm a huge Dallas Mavs fan. What I love about Dirk Nowitzki is he has just as much talent as everyone else, if not more, and he never toots his own horn. He's this silent warrior.

~Erin Wasson

When you can take something that is a reject at the thrift store sitting on the bottom of a pile of junk and make it work, make it look interesting, that's real style to me.

~Erin Wasson

I'm passionate about being true to myself, sending good energy to the people around me, traveling, staying inspired, being a good friend, being a good daughter, being a good sister.

~Erin Wasson

I don't think about fashion or trends - I've never really been that kind of person.

~Erin Wasson

I'm really happy with everything that I've been fortunate enough to do and with the creative outlets I've been blessed to have.

~Erin Wasson

I never expected to be a model. I never expected to be a stylist. Or a designer.

~Erin Wasson

Related Links:

- Thinking Quotes
- Girl Quotes
- People Quotes
- Fashion Quotes
- Want Quotes
- Style Quotes
- Believe Quotes
- New York Quotes
- Jeans Quotes
- Real Quotes
- Ideas Quotes
- Antiques Quotes
- Curly Hair Quotes
- Clothes Quotes
- Stylist Quotes
- Trends Quotes
- Designer Quotes
- Hair Quotes
- Cutting Quotes
- Growing Up Quotes