The name Peace River itself is the monument of a successful effort on the part of the Company to bring about a better understanding between the Crees and the Beavers.

~Ernest Thompson Seton

How much service have I rendered to my people?

~Ernest Thompson Seton

The Hudson's Bay Company has always been the guardian angel of the north.

~Ernest Thompson Seton

Though so trifling, the success of our first Buffalo hunt gave us quite a social lift.

~Ernest Thompson Seton

The life of a wild animal always has a tragic end.

~Ernest Thompson Seton

Not Carnegie, Vanderbilt, and Astor together could have raised money enough to buy a quarter share in my little dogs.

~Ernest Thompson Seton

The ancient feud between cat and dog is not forgotten in the north, for the Lynx is the deadly foe of the Fox and habitually kills it when there is soft snow and scarcity of easier prey.

~Ernest Thompson Seton

The white spruce forest along the banks is most inspiring, magnificent here. Down the terraced slopes and right to the water's edge on the alluvial soil it stands in ranks.

~Ernest Thompson Seton

We and the beasts are kin.

~Ernest Thompson Seton

We were now back at Smith Landing, and fired with a desire to make another Buffalo expedition on which we should have ampler time and cover more than a mere corner of the range.

~Ernest Thompson Seton

I have only one prejudice in horseflesh - I do not like a white one.

~Ernest Thompson Seton

All travellers who had preceded me into the Barren Grounds had relied on the abundant game, and in consequence suffered dreadful hardships; in some cases even starved to death.

~Ernest Thompson Seton

I believe that natural history has lost much by the vague general treatment that is so common.

~Ernest Thompson Seton
