You cannot stoke the fires of prejudice against German people and then not find that somewhere, sometime down the road it doesn't discharge.

~Ernst Zundel

I wore bulletproof vests, and my bodyguards had the option of having bulletproof vests - I bought five sets.

~Ernst Zundel

I am, as a European, absolutely shocked by European people. I am also shocked by European nationalist people. They have allowed themselves to be so emasculated so silently.

~Ernst Zundel

I am not saying that Hitler was a choir boy. But I am saying, let him who was innocent in the Second World War cast the first stone.

~Ernst Zundel

What we have to do now is to make the public at large aware that what we're looking at is not a historical event but - and I have to be brutal and I am going to say it - a racket.

~Ernst Zundel

Had I been in Toronto, I would certainly have been killed in this attack. In the room where I normally sleep, the flames and the smoke and the soot is such that the gases would have killed me.

~Ernst Zundel

Conquerors never, never conquer a nation to bring freedom. They brought control.

~Ernst Zundel

Once you are a victim of a bombing, you enter a risk group to which they will not sell insurance.

~Ernst Zundel

I am not saying that during the Second World War Germany did not, under the leadership of the National Socialist government, commit crimes.

~Ernst Zundel

The reason why I have survived as long as I have survived is what my friends, comrades and supporters thought was an extraordinarily cautious approach.

~Ernst Zundel

But as a German - and I am German-born - we Germans are condemned once again to be radical revisionists.

~Ernst Zundel

The unfortunate thing is, for the contents of the building I could not get any insurance anywhere in Canada.

~Ernst Zundel

The trial of Ernst Zundel has gone down in Canadian history.
