The staff, stage managers, ushers all behaved as if they respected the actors.

~Estelle

You can't please everybody. I give up. I'm not trying to. I don't care. Leave me alone with that.

~Estelle

In theater, the wellspring of the character comes from the doing of it, like a trial by fire, but in front of an audience.

~Estelle

Don't forget the prices are so high in theater; it isn't really where a young person can go on a date and buy two tickets and take someone out anymore.

~Estelle

The thing that makes me feel powerful is when I make a decision about something and I make it happen.

~Estelle

When there is hope, there is life.

~Estelle

I started my entire journey as an indie artist. Ownership has its benefits and it's just about putting in the work. I'm just working.

~Estelle

I went to New York and Miami and hung out by the beach, and I love the American boys, so I wrote a song about it.

~Estelle

I like time off because I also have a life outside of theater.

~Estelle

People who call themselves actors and can't ever get work; they do need to get another profession.

~Estelle

I mean, there are times when you aren't working, but still believe that work will come.

~Estelle

We all need to go to good theater; that is what I believe will save it.

~Estelle

I know people like spectacle, but I'm interested in moving people.

~Estelle

Acting is very start and stop.

~Estelle

I have never been interested in specific roles.

~Estelle

I find that there are few reviews that extol women as wonderful artists.

~Estelle

No one goes straight to happiness after a breakup.
