

Ethel Mumford

Quotes

Drinking, Motto, Orphan, Economy, Doors, Imagination, Prodigies, Patient, Cynicism, Born, Doctors, Pride, Pounds, Jobs, Invention, Busy, Mouths, Design, People, Sonnet

Busy people are never busybodies.

~Ethel Mumford

Absinthe makes the heart grow fonder.

~Ethel Mumford

The Doctor's Motto: Have patients.

~Ethel Mumford

Knowledge is power, if you know it about the right person.

~Ethel Mumford

The wages of Gin is Debt.

~Ethel Mumford

The doors of Opportunity are marked 'Push' and 'Pull'.

~Ethel Mumford

The greatest possession is Self-possession.

~Ethel Mumford

The danger lies not in the big ears of little pitchers, but in the large mouths.

~Ethel Mumford

The self-made man is often proud of a poor job.

~Ethel Mumford

The worst thing about cynicism is its truth.

~Ethel Mumford

Imagination makes cowards of us all.

~Ethel Mumford

Life Insurance Motto - Robbing the widows early and orphan.

~Ethel Mumford

Where there is a will there's a law suit.

~Ethel Mumford

Contentment: The smother of invention.

~Ethel Mumford

An ounce of convention is worth a pound of explanation.

~Ethel Mumford

Those who 'cursed the day they were born' must have been infant prodigies.

~Ethel Mumford

Economy is the thief of time.

~Ethel Mumford

Better a live doggerel than a dead sonnet.

~Ethel Mumford

Related Links:

- Drinking Quotes
- Motto Quotes
- Orphan Quotes
- Economy Quotes
- Doors Quotes
- Imagination Quotes
- Prodigies Quotes
- Patient Quotes
- Cynicism Quotes
- Born Quotes
- Doctors Quotes
- Pride Quotes
- Pounds Quotes
- Jobs Quotes
- Invention Quotes
- Busy Quotes
- Mouths Quotes
- Design Quotes
- People Quotes
- Sonnet Quotes