Families and businesses are tightening their belts to make ends meet - and Washington should too.

~Evan Bayh

What is required from members of Congress and the public alike is a new spirit of devotion to the national welfare beyond party or self-interest.

~Evan Bayh

If one of my boys was asking me if they should go into politics, I'd say there's only one reason to go into public life and that's to help people.

~Evan Bayh

I'm pleased to offer analysis of public policy and politics to the millions of Americans who get their news from Fox.

~Evan Bayh

If I could create one job in the private sector by helping to grow a business, that would be one more than Congress has created in the last six months.
