I have one thing that counts, and that is my heart; it burns in my soul, it aches in my flesh, and it ignites my nerves: that is my love for the people and Peron.

~Evita Peron

Shadows cannot see themselves in the mirror of the sun.

~Evita Peron

I demanded more rights for women because I know what women had to put up with.

~Evita Peron

You must want! You have the right to ask! You must desire.

~Evita Peron

Answer violence with violence. If one of us falls today, five of them must fall tomorrow.

~Evita Peron

My biggest fear in life is to be forgotten.

~Evita Peron

Without fanaticism we cannot accomplish anything.

~Evita Peron

If I fall, look out for the crash. There won't be anyone left standing.

~Evita Peron

When the rich think about the poor, they have poor ideas.

~Evita Peron

Where there is a worker, there lies a nation.

~Evita Peron

Time is my greatest enemy.

~Evita Peron

Charity separates the rich from the poor; aid raises the needy and sets him on the same level with the rich.

~Evita Peron

To convince oneself that one has the right to live decently takes time.

~Evita Peron

Our President has declared that the only privileged person in our country are the children.

~Evita Peron

I am only a sparrow amongst a great flock of sparrows.

~Evita Peron

Sometimes I have wished my insults were slaps or lashes; I've wanted to hit people in the face and make them see, if only for a day, what I see each day I help people.

~Evita Peron

I am only a simple woman who lives to serve Peron and my people.

~Evita Peron

Put down me for a lifetime of success: give me credit, I'll find ways of paying.

~Evita Peron

Almsgiving tends to perpetuate poverty; aid does away with it once and for all

~Evita Peron

If I have to apply five turns to the screw each day for the happiness of

Argentina, I will do it.

~Evita Peron

Keeping books on social aid is capitalistic nonsense. I just use the money for the poor. I can't stop to count it.

~Evita Peron

Almsgiving leaves a man just where he was before. Aid restores him to society as an individual worthy of all respect and not as a man with a grievance.

~Evita Peron

In government, one actress is enough.
