The greatest tragedy of life is not unanswered prayer, but unoffered prayer.

~F.B. Meyer

Watch the morning watch. Do not see the face of man until you have seen the face of God. Before you enter on the day with its temptations, look up into His face and hide His Word in your heart.

~F.B. Meyer

God is down in front. He is in the tomorrows. It is tomorrow that fills men with dread. God is there already. All the tomorrows of our life have to pass Him before they can get to us.

~F.B. Meyer

The love of God toward you is like the Amazon River flowing down to water a single daisy.

~F.B. Meyer

Unbelief puts our circumstance between us and God, but faith puts God between us and our circumstances.

~F.B. Meyer

If you're not willing to give up everything for Christ, are you willing to be made willing?

~F.B. Meyer

When we want to know God's will, there are three things which always concur: the inward impulse, the Word of God and the trend of circumstances. Never act until these three things agree.

~F.B. Meyer

There is nothing, indeed, which God will not do for a man who dares to step out upon what seems to be the mist; though as he puts his foot down he finds a rock beneath him.

~F.B. Meyer

Consecration is not the act of our feelings but of our WILL.

~F.B. Meyer

God incarnate is the end of fear; and the heart that realizes that, realizes that he is in the midst, that takes heed to the assurance of his loving presence, will be quiet in the midst of alarm.

~F.B. Meyer

We never get so near God as when we plead for others.

~F.B. Meyer

The certainty of our salvation rests on the character of God.

~F.B. Meyer

Do not look down, brooding over your weakness! Do not look back upon your past, strewn with failure! Look up to the living Christ!

~F.B. Meyer

He is the richest man in the esteem of the world who has gotten the most. He is the richest man in the esteem of Heaven who has given the most.

~F.B. Meyer

Though justification costs us nothing but the sacrifice of our pride, it has cost Christ His blood.

~F.B. Meyer

The church which is not a missionary church will be a missing church when Jesus comes.

~F.B. Meyer

I believe that if there is one thing which pierces the Master's heart with unutterable grief, it is not the world's iniquity, but the Church's indifferences.

~F.B. Meyer

The spirit of the gospel is in absolute disagreement with the spirit of the world.

~F.B. Meyer

Go on day by day fulfilling the task of the day, and leaving the results with God.

~F.B. Meyer

Consecration is only possible when we give up our will about EVERYTHING.

~F.B. Meyer

There is no burden of the spirit but is lighter by kneeling under it.

~F.B. Meyer

Christ's work needs no repetition. It is final because it is perfect.

~F.B. Meyer

God has a purpose in every life, and when the soul is completely yielded and acquiescent, He will certainly realize it. Blessed is he who has never thwarted the working of the divine ideal.

~F.B. Meyer

Joy is peace dancing and peace is joy at rest.

~F.B. Meyer

Prayer is an exchange. We leave our burdens, worries and sin in the hands of God. We come away with oil of joy and the garment of praise.

~F.B. Meyer

What a comfort it is to feel that amid the chaos and anarchy which sweep the surface, God is holding fast the foundations on which we build.

~F.B. Meyer

If you are not willing to be used by God, ask God to make you willing to be willing.

~F.B. Meyer

Purity of heart means the control of the imagination and the rigorous care of the affections.

~F.B. Meyer

As we pour out our bitterness, God pours in his peace.

~F.B. Meyer

There is nothing the Church of today needs so much as Spiritual Power; and there is nothing which we can have so easily, if only we are prepared to pay the price.

~F.B. Meyer

The one thing that hinders God is our unbelief.

~F.B. Meyer

There is no sin so profound, no despondency so low, no misery so abject, but the love of Christ is deeper.

~F.B. Meyer

How many of us, who are engaged in the Lord's holy service, are secretly cherishing some proud purpose of excelling other men, of making a name, of securing money and applause.

~F.B. Meyer

God is love; to do his will is to scatter love in handfuls of blessing on a weary world.

~F.B. Meyer

Habits of prayer need careful cultivation.

~F.B. Meyer

The man who prays grows, and the muscles of the soul swell from this whipcord to iron bands.

~F.B. Meyer

We must be still before God.

~F.B. Meyer

God does not fill with His Holy Spirit those who believe in the fullness of the Spirit, or those who desire Him, but those who obey Him.

~F.B. Meyer

How often God takes away our consolations, that we may only love Him for Himself; and reveals our sinfulness, that we may better appreciate the completeness of his salvation!

~F.B. Meyer

The flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh.

~F.B. Meyer

The quiet life is by no means the greatest life. Some characters can only reach the highest standard of spirituality by the disturbings or displacings in the order of God's providence.

~F.B. Meyer

If I had my ministry over again, I would devote far more time to the ministry of comfort and encouragement.

~F.B. Meyer

I can't say I'm willing, Lord, but I'm willing to be made willing.

~F.B. Meyer

Yours will be the wings of an eagle's flight, the soaring of a lark, sunward, heavenward, Godward! But you must take time to be holy - in meditation, in prayer, and especially in the use of the Bible.

~F.B. Meyer

The passing of the years awakens in our hearts the cry for permanence.

~F.B. Meyer

When a man is right with God, God will freely use him.
