~Faith Hill

Country music is the people's music. It just speaks about real life and about truth and it tells things how they really are.

~Faith Hill

It's okay to take time for yourself. We give so much of ourselves to others and we need to be fueled both physically and mentally. If we are in balance, it helps us in all our interactions.

~Faith Hill

Cinderella said to snow white, how does love get so off course? All I wanted was a white knight with a good heart, soft touch, fast horse.

~Faith Hill

I have a lot of respect for my birth mother I know she must have had a lot of love for me to want to give what she felt was a better chance.

~Faith Hill

There are many lessons to learn. Naming just one is next to impossible. However, learning to love and be loved is a good starting point. It will encompass much.

~Faith Hill

When I'm lying wrapped up in your arms, the whole world just fades away. The only thing I hear is the beating of your heart.

~Faith Hill

Everybody wants you to do good things, but in a small town you pretty much graduate and get married. Mostly you marry, have children and go to their football games.

~Faith Hill

Having been adopted, I really have a strong sense- a necessity almost- for stability, a foundation where my family is concerned. [Success] would be meaningless without anyone to share it with.

~Faith Hill

I don't let things go unless I'm ready for them to go.

~Faith Hill

When I wake up in a bad mood, I try not to stay in one. Learn to make the best of what you have.

~Faith Hill

The foundation of family - that's where it all begins for me.

~Faith Hill
