Stephen Harper is probably the most dangerous human being ever elevated to power in Canada.

~Farley Mowat

We're under some gross misconception that we're a good species, going somewhere important, and that at the last minute we'll correct our errors and God will smile on us. It's delusion.

~Farley Mowat

Inaction will cause a man to sink into the slough of despond and vanish without a trace.

~Farley Mowat

The wolf never kills for fun, which is probably one of the main differences distinguishing him from man.

~Farley Mowat

It is in our nature to travel into our past, hoping thereby to illuminate the darkness that bedevils the present.

~Farley Mowat

Don't make a big distinction between fiction and non-fiction. These are arbitrary distinctions.

~Farley Mowat

After all, we fought the Yanks in 1812 and kicked them the hell out of our country - but not with blanks.

~Farley Mowat

And this is what happened, ands this is why the caribou and the wolf are one; for the caribou feeds the wolf, but it is the wolf that keeps the caribou strong.

~Farley Mowat

Ah me son, we don't be takin' nothin' from the sea. We has to sneak up on what we wants and wiggle it away

~Farley Mowat

If you are going to be a big personality, you've got to have some kind of characteristic gimmick.

~Farley Mowat

I write every day. I'm always in the process of writing my last book, until the next one.

~Farley Mowat

You never know when the devil might come calling.

~Farley Mowat

I never let the facts get in the way of the truth!

~Farley Mowat

I believe in God the way my dog does

~Farley Mowat

Truth I have no trouble with, it's the facts I get all screwed up.

~Farley Mowat

Don't let the facts interfere with the truth.

~Farley Mowat

I have to go on writing because I wouldn't be able to go on without writing. It is the only function that works for me, and without that function, I would die.

~Farley Mowat

Without a function, we cease to be. So, I will write till I die.
