We are not only talking about waves of refugees coming to Greece, to Italy, and elsewhere. Destabilizing the Balkans means Lebanonization, and that means destabilizing all of Europe.

~Fatos Nano

Albania does not feel alone. It is part of the Partnership for Peace structures in NATO, and it will do what it can within that.

~Fatos Nano

Most of Albania considers this Government to be legitimate.

~Fatos Nano

Albania is at risk and we are living in difficult times.

~Fatos Nano

Today in the era of globalization there is no such issue as borders between states of the same nation.

~Fatos Nano

We have gone through everything as a nation - partition, dictatorship, and even anarchy.

~Fatos Nano

If we didn't have the Albanian entrepreneurial spirit and financial support from the diaspora, this stupid political class would have destroyed the country by now.

~Fatos Nano

Albanians are a nation of freedom fighters who know something about living under oppression.

~Fatos Nano

If we follow the traditional way of thought, there will always be traditional enemies. Extremist circles from both sides will find causes to give rise to problems.

~Fatos Nano

All sorts of artillery installations, rockets and tank units that are firing on civilians in Kosovo should be neutralized. If that means air strikes, then NATO should carry out air strikes.

~Fatos Nano

Organizing free and fair elections is more important than the result itself

~Fatos Nano

Kosovo is too close to Europe. It is not only close to Albania, it is close to Greece, Italy, Germany and Switzerland, where there are still many Kosovo refugees. Spontaneous reactions could multiply.

~Fatos Nano

I am hopeful that no one will forget what happened in Bosnia.

~Fatos Nano

People didn't vote left or right in the election. They voted for putting an end to all the primitive political history.
