

Fay Wray Quotes

Thinking, Book, Work, Time, People, Men, Looks, Art, New York, Littles, Mother, Letters, Fun, Mother Daughter, Vices, Fingers, Surfing, Play, Faces, Helping

When I'm in New York I look at the Empire State Building and feel as though it belongs to me ... or is it vice versa?

~Fay Wray

Sometimes I worked with just a background of a rock or a tree or black velvet, and just had to imagine the whole thing.

~Fay Wray

My children didn't when they were little because I thought that they had to be of a certain age. I hoped they liked me well enough not to want to see me in that sort of a spot.

~Fay Wray

They were very considerate, I must say. Every time I felt I was about to slip out of these fingers and would yell for help, they'd let me down and re-organize things.

~Fay Wray

Only in your imagination can you revise.

~Fay Wray

Recently, a six-year-old boy said to me, "I've been waiting to meet you for half my life."

~Fay Wray

Lillian Gish thought that there should be a cabinet position for the arts and I think she was right. I think she was right.

~Fay Wray

Juan Tripp was a friend. Good name for an airline man, huh? Juan Tripp after another?

~Fay Wray

It was so satisfying for me - a great reward, just to see it done well. And it was beautifully directed by my daughter Susan Riskin. Imagine, a play about my mother directed by my daughter?!

~Fay Wray

As far as advice, that will be in my next book, my next collection. I certainly never like to instruct anyone, but just say as I feel. That's the same as advice, isn't it?

~Fay Wray

Paul Lucas had a particularly amusing accent, so I chuckled. That was terrible; I shouldn't have done that, but he took it too big. He got up and said he couldn't work with people who laughed at him!

~Fay Wray

I went to Washington to ask for a little residual payment for the people who had written films in the early, early days, people who never got any residuals on tapes or anything at all.

~Fay Wray

I think to have done 'Titanic' would have been a tortuous experience altogether. I feel good about where my life is, now. I feel free and joyous and happy and more liberated than I have ever been.

~Fay Wray

There is a lot of strength and intelligence in Hollywood.

~Fay Wray

When the picture was finished, they took me into the sound room and then I screamed more for about five minutes just steady screaming, and then they'd cut that in and add it.

~Fay Wray

There were shots of Kong pulling at my clothes, but only in horizontal and never from above. Never from above.

~Fay Wray

I think the studio gave me that series on purpose, because they knew perfectly well that Robert Riskin was ill and that I needed to go to work. They gave me that series to do.

~Fay Wray

Related Links:

- Thinking Quotes
- Book Quotes
- Work Quotes
- Time Quotes
- People Quotes
- Men Quotes
- Looks Quotes
- Art Quotes
- New York Quotes
- Littles Quotes
- Mother Quotes
- Letters Quotes
- Fun Quotes
- Mother Daughter Quotes
- Vices Quotes
- Fingers Quotes
- Surfing Quotes
- Play Quotes
- Faces Quotes
- Helping Quotes