Just saying no prevents teenage pregnancy the way 'Have a nice day' cures chronic depression.

~Faye Wattleton

My satisfaction comes from my commitment to advancing a better world.

~Faye Wattleton

The only safe ship in a storm is leadership.

~Faye Wattleton

My mother taught me a lot of things, but they had big presuppositions built in - like her expectation that I'd be a missionary nurse in a religious order.

~Faye Wattleton

Men's reproduction isn't regulated by the state -- and it shouldn't be. Neither should women's.

~Faye Wattleton

Until the day arrives when all women decide that our rights are not negotiable, our future choices will not be secure.

~Faye Wattleton

The influence of one's parents is powerful and permanent.

~Faye Wattleton

Whoever is providing leadership needs to be as fresh and thoughtful and reflective as possible to make the very best fight.

~Faye Wattleton

Social change rarely comes about through the efforts of the disenfranchised. The middle class creates social revolutions.

~Faye Wattleton

I have never believed in the impossible.

~Faye Wattleton

The deal is that women have entered the workforce, but they have not been relieved of the domestic responsibilities.

~Faye Wattleton

We've consistently seen, since the late 1990s, that more than half of women believe that abortion should be severely restricted or abolished altogether.

~Faye Wattleton

One of the sad commentaries on the way women are viewed in our society is that we have to fit one category. I have never felt that I had to be in one category.

~Faye Wattleton

If we can't preserve the privacy of our right to procreate, I can't imagine what rights we will be able to protect.

~Faye Wattleton

Affirmative action has been generally cast in terms of race. I think women themselves are not as cognizant of the role affirmative action has played in opening the doors for women.

~Faye Wattleton

A woman who places a high priority on performance and excellence is seen as imperial. A man is seen as demanding and tough.
