I don't believe in courtship. It's a waste of time. If I love the person, I'll tell her right away. But for you, I'll make an exception. Just love me now, and I'll court you forever.

~Ferdinand Marcos

I have committed many sins in my life. But stealing money from the government, from the people, is not one of them.

~Ferdinand Marcos

There are many things we do not want in this world. Let us not just mourn them; let us change them

~Ferdinand Marcos

Leadership is the other side of the coin of loneliness, and he who is a leader must always act alone. And acting alone, accept everything alone.

~Ferdinand Marcos

Of what good is democracy if it is not for the poor?

~Ferdinand Marcos

History should not be left to the historians. Rather, be like Churchill. Make history, and then write it.

~Ferdinand Marcos

I often wonder what I will be remembered in history for. Scholar?
Military hero? Builder?

~Ferdinand Marcos

Some people say the president is incapable of enforcing the law. Let them say that once more and I will set the tanks on them.

~Ferdinand Marcos

Elect me as your congressman today, I promise you an Ilocano

president in 20 years.

~Ferdinand Marcos

Once a champion, always a champion.

~Ferdinand Marcos

It is not a choice of life, it is a choice of death. If this is life, I'd rather die.

~Ferdinand Marcos

It is easier to run a revolution than a government.

~Ferdinand Marcos

The challenge to America is to extend to Asia the defensive shield of American power in forms consonant with Asian freedom and self-respect.

~Ferdinand Marcos

Little boys have amazing minds.

~Ferdinand Marcos

History isn't through with me yet.

~Ferdinand Marcos

I claim the right not to incriminate myself.

~Ferdinand Marcos

The permissiveness of society must be balanced with authoritative-ness.

~Ferdinand Marcos

We love your adherence to democratic principles and to democratic processes.

~Ferdinand Marcos
