I have a bit of a traveling addiction, and, ah, yeah. I went to, ah, Bali this summer.

~Fisher Stevens

You know, it's a very sexist society, Indonesia.

~Fisher Stevens

But I like being nasty. I like being cranky. Especially if it's a cold day in Chicago, it's nice to just take it out on Kyle, because he's so easy to scream at, you know?

~Fisher Stevens

It got a little boring I guess, playing the same note over and over.

~Fisher Stevens

I wanted to do an episode about Chuck having a gambling problem. I wanted to portray my addiction on the show. But I think it's a little edgy for Saturday night.

~Fisher Stevens

Technology changing the world so quickly. I think it's even more difficult for older people to keep up in the world. And that's a challenge.

~Fisher Stevens

But I used to have a bit of a gambling problem. And that would have been the answer to my prayers. It got worse when I started playing this character, too.

~Fisher Stevens

And TV is not the easiest place to be dangerous or on the edge. Especially on a Saturday night.

~Fisher Stevens

Human beings. People's stories. That's really what gets me excited.

~Fisher Stevens

I'm not even fifty yet, but I still feel like Instagram and Spotify - I'm trying to stay with it! It's not easy. The world is going so fast.

~Fisher Stevens

This human condition and people's stories. That's what I love. The other thing is traveling.

~Fisher Stevens

I use that as my responsibility on the show, to be the pragmatist.

~Fisher Stevens

The reason I took Early Edition - besides the fact that I liked it - was that it enabled me to start a production company in New York City. It's a low-budget film company to produce and direct movies.

~Fisher Stevens

I think connection makes me vulnerable. Commitment makes me vulnerable, really.

~Fisher Stevens

I'm really obsessed with the past.

~Fisher Stevens

No, but I'm really lucky, because I'm not the superhero.

~Fisher Stevens

I like people and get along, and I'm afraid to express my anger and my rage.
