Prostitutes don't sell their bodies, they rent their bodies. Housewives sell their bodies when they get married.

~Florynce Kennedy

If men could get pregnant, abortion would be a sacrament.

~Florynce Kennedy

It's interesting to speculate how it developed that in two of the most anti-feminist institutions, the church and the law court, the men are wearing the dresses.

~Florynce Kennedy

Freedom is like taking a bath: You got to keep doing it every day.

~Florynce Kennedy

When a system of oppression has become institutionalized it is unnecessary for individuals to be oppressive

~Florynce Kennedy

I think we should look forward to death more than we do. Of course everybody hates to go to bed or miss anything, but dying is really the only chance we'll get to rest.

~Florynce Kennedy

Here I am a woman attorney being told I can't practice law in slacks by a judge dressed in drag.

~Florynce Kennedy

The question arises whether all lawyers are the same. This is like asking whether everything that gets into a sewer is garbage.

~Florynce Kennedy

Unity in a Movement situation can be overrated. If you were the Establishment, which would you rather see coming in the door: one lion or five hundred mice?

~Florynce Kennedy

I approve of anyone wearing what the establishment says you must not wear.

~Florynce Kennedy

The biggest sin is sitting on your ass.

~Florynce Kennedy

I know we're termites. But if all the termites got together, the house would fall down.

~Florynce Kennedy

Don't agonize, organize.

~Florynce Kennedy

You can't dump one cup of sugar into the ocean and expect to get syrup. If everybody sweetened her own cup of water, then things would begin to change.

~Florynce Kennedy

Oppressed people are frequently very oppressive when first liberated. And why wouldn't they be? They know best two positions. Somebody's foot on their neck or their foot on somebody's neck.

~Florynce Kennedy

There's no way that I know of to avoid pain absolutely, but suffering is the interpretation we choose to place on the pain we encounter.

~Florynce Kennedy

Now, see there. Just because I'm wearing my Super-Dike sweatshirt, you think I'm a lesbian. I guess if I were wearing a string of pearls, you'd think I was an oyster.

~Florynce Kennedy

Niggerization is the result of oppression -- and it doesn't just apply to the black people. Old people, poor people, and students can also get niggerized.

~Florynce Kennedy

I never stop to wonder why I'm not like other people. The mystery to me is why more people aren't like me.

~Florynce Kennedy

Everybody's scared for their ass. There aren't too many people ready to die for racism. They'll kill for racism but they won't die for racism.

~Florynce Kennedy

... tobacco kills 52,000 people a year from lung cancer, and there's no telling how many lives have been ruined through drinking. But to my knowledge, no one has ever died of a blow job.

~Florynce Kennedy

Don't agonise, organise.

~Florynce Kennedy

At my age...I'm going to do what I want and I haven't got time for anything else.

~Florynce Kennedy

The spending of our tax dollars by the Pentagon represents the greatest social disease of our country; I call it Pentagonorrhea.

~Florynce Kennedy

There's a difference between Vaselining the rapee and catching the rapist.

~Florynce Kennedy

Trying to help an oppressed person is like trying to put your arm around somebody with a sunburn.

~Florynce Kennedy

Any woman who still thinks marriage is a fifty-fifty proposition is only proving that she doesn't understand either men or percentages.

~Florynce Kennedy

Being a mother is a noble status, right? Right. So why does it change when you put 'unwed' or 'welfare' in front of it?

~Florynce Kennedy

... anybody with the brains and energy to become a teacher ought to want to become something better.
