Winning means being unafraid to lose.

~Fran Tarkenton

You know, quarterbacks, I think greatness in quarterbacks is taking what you've got, whether it's a great team, a good team, or a struggling team and make them better.

~Fran Tarkenton

It's perfectly okay to want to quit - as long as you don't.

~Fran Tarkenton

Leadership must be demonstrated, not announced.

~Fran Tarkenton

The failure to be perfect does not mean you are not a success; it is giving your best that helps you to understand the joy of receiving.

~Fran Tarkenton

If football taught me anything about business, it is that you win the game one play at a time.

~Fran Tarkenton

You can only learn by opening yourself up to engage with different sources of information. How can you learn something if you never see it, read it, or hear it?

~Fran Tarkenton

Success, in my view, is the willingness to strive for something you really want

~Fran Tarkenton

In sports, teams win and individuals don't.

~Fran Tarkenton

What's so wonderful about business is that every time I start thinking I'm special, I get knocked on my ass.

~Fran Tarkenton

I discovered that the more I hustled, the luckier I seemed to get.

~Fran Tarkenton

If it's not fun, you are not doing it right.

~Fran Tarkenton

Ignoring facts does not make them go away.

~Fran Tarkenton

The greatness of America is capitalism, free market capitalism. The exceptionalism of American business.

~Fran Tarkenton

Quarterbacks need to make their team better. If it's a bad team, they can even make a bad team better.

~Fran Tarkenton

Television isn't my career. Business is.

~Fran Tarkenton

If you wait for the right time or the good times to start a business, you wait all your life.

~Fran Tarkenton

Fear causes people to draw back from situations. It brings on mediocrity, it dulls creativity, it sets one up to be a loser in life.

~Fran Tarkenton

The New York Times Bestseller 'The Amateur,' written by Ed Klein, former editor of the 'New York Times Magazine,' is one of the best books I've read.

~Fran Tarkenton

Maybe you can't play over your head at all. Maybe it's just potential you never knew you had.

~Fran Tarkenton

Great quarterbacks, good quarterbacks, make plays.

~Fran Tarkenton

That's how I judge a quarterback: Either you make plays or you don't. I don't even want to talk about mechanics.

~Fran Tarkenton

When everything else breaks down, I don't hesitate to roam out of the pocket and do the boogaloo.

~Fran Tarkenton

It's a lonesome walk to the sidelines, especially when thousands of people are cheering your replacement.
