No use crying over spilled milk.

~Francesca Marciano

Love sometimes makes people ruthless in a way that not even hatred can.

~Francesca Marciano

A first kiss is the demarcation line: the same information that a moment ago felt private, all of a suddens seems unfair to withhold. And with that exchange came more.

~Francesca Marciano

Suddenly it all seemed luminously clear. Love had very little to do with fear and emotional sabotage; love had to do with trust.

~Francesca Marciano

I can't say why some memories float and other sink.

~Francesca Marciano

It would drive me crazy to be a guest in my own house.

~Francesca Marciano

Jealousy is a disease, it's like a poison.

~Francesca Marciano

It may be possible to forget our past but our past is not going to forget us.

~Francesca Marciano

Passion - eventually it cools.

~Francesca Marciano

It's not easy to give up something you've had all your life.

~Francesca Marciano

What kind of heart does one have to have in order to be able to get rid of these, without regret, as if they were empty beer cans?

~Francesca Marciano

Children know so little, they must learn quickly to imitate grown-ups whenever they feel unsure in a situation.

~Francesca Marciano

I'd rather stay asleep than have to learn all those frightening secrets.

~Francesca Marciano

We knew nothing of loss. Nobody has taught us about pain. Until that moment, death had just amounted to a scary sound.

~Francesca Marciano

I had fallen out of my secure world, precipitated beyond the territories I had only begun to control so skillfully. What a foolish step to take. What an insane move to make.

~Francesca Marciano
