How easy it is to blame others for our unhappiness, but we are only unhappy when something other than Christ has become our life.

~Francis Frangipane

The thankful heart sees the best part of every situation. It sees problems and weaknesses as opportunities, struggles as refining tools, and sinners as saints in progress.

~Francis Frangipane

If you are serious about becoming like Christ, He is going to put you in circumstances where your only true choice is to become like Him.

~Francis Frangipane

God can never entrust His Kingdom to anyone who has not been broken of pride, for pride is the armour of darkness itself.

~Francis Frangipane

I have learned that much of my spiritual progress does not come directly from God, but through my ability to humble myself and hear Him speak through imperfect people.

~Francis Frangipane

The only way we can leave the pain or sin from our past is to face it with Christ. For the past cannot be forgotten, it can only be forgiven and redeemed.

~Francis Frangipane

God calls us not only to know His Word, but also to pray it.

~Francis Frangipane

The real goal of Christianity is not to create a religion about God, but that we would actually know Him, experiencing firsthand the wonders and power of His incomparable life.
