Feminism liberated women from the natural dignity of their sex and turned them into inferior men.

~Francis Parker Yockey

A moment's reflection shows that Liberalism is entirely negative. It is not a formative force, but always and only a disintegrating force.

~Francis Parker Yockey

For us there is but one crime: to be untrue to ourselves.

~Francis Parker Yockey

To an intellectual who is adrift in politics, a theory is an aim; to a true politician his theory is a boundary

~Francis Parker Yockey

Liberalism can only be defined negatively. It is a mere critique, not a living idea

~Francis Parker Yockey

Rationalism, which is the feeling that everything is subject to and completely explicable by Reason, consequently rejects everything not visible and calculable.

~Francis Parker Yockey

If pessimism is despair, optimism is cowardice and stupidity. Is there any need to choose between them?

~Francis Parker Yockey

Capitalism is not an economic system, but a world-outlook, or rather, a part of a whole world-outlook

~Francis Parker Yockey

Alliance does not mean love, any more than war means hate

~Francis Parker Yockey

As a world view, Darwinism cannot of course be refuted, since Faith is, always has been, and always will be, stronger than facts

~Francis Parker Yockey

No section of the American populace has been more completely deceived by the forces interested in keeping the truth from the people than America's youth.

~Francis Parker Yockey

To the fantastic mental illness of Rationalism, hard facts are regrettable things, and to talk about them is to create them

~Francis Parker Yockey

Leftist ideas are a part of the very atmosphere which American youth breathes

~Francis Parker Yockey

Politics is activity in relation to power

~Francis Parker Yockey

The important part of Marxism was its demand for active, constant, practical, class-war

~Francis Parker Yockey

Man as a pure animal does not exist

~Francis Parker Yockey

Liberalism is Rationalism in politics.

~Francis Parker Yockey

Hatred is not contained in political thinking. Any hatred worked up against the public enemy is non-political, and always shows some weakness in the internal political situation.

~Francis Parker Yockey

The purest expression of the doctrine of Liberalism was probably that of Benjamin Constant

~Francis Parker Yockey

Pessimism only describes an attitude, and not facts, and hence is entirely subjective.

~Francis Parker Yockey

A political theory seeks to find from history the limits of the politically possible

~Francis Parker Yockey

Every science is a profane restatement of the preceding dogmas of the religious period

~Francis Parker Yockey

The 19th century was the age of Individualism the 20th and 21st are the ages of Socialism.

~Francis Parker Yockey

The early American arrived at a land of which he knew nothing

~Francis Parker Yockey

Liberalism is a most important by-product of Rationalism, and its origins and ideology must be clearly shown

~Francis Parker Yockey

The State becomes society or humanity on the ethical side, a production and trade system on the economic side

~Francis Parker Yockey

The independence of the economic sphere was a tenet of faith with Liberalism

~Francis Parker Yockey

The way politics divides the world is into friend and enemy

~Francis Parker Yockey
