But for me, to get the tattoo was part of moving into adulthood. Making a choice that is permanent and that I'll have to stick with.

~Francois Arnaud

I feel like there's a desire for a sense of permanence that is growing in me.

Im not sure Ill find acting satisfying creatively forever. If you get the good roles, its great - if you have the freedom to choose your projects and not just do anything and everything.

~Francois Arnaud

You definitely shouldn't watch the special features before you watch the actual series.

~Francois Arnaud

I think there comes a point in probably most father-son relationships where the son kind of starts becoming the parent.

~Francois Arnaud

I like languages. I like working on different accents. I speak English, French and Spanish. I'd love to learn more but I think, as you get older, your brain is a bit slower.

~Francois Arnaud

I try to find meaning or value in most things and be as diverse as possible.

~Francois Arnaud

Some artists go through life not realizing that they have to be happy today. They're always thinking about the next job or the next thing: "I'll get this, then I'll be happy." Then you're miserable.

~Francois Arnaud

I felt for a really long time, "When I grow up I want to be an actor." And now I'm like, "Oh, this is it now. This is my life."

~Francois Arnaud

Now people are celebrated for being obsessive.

~Francois Arnaud

I know that sometimes you have to reason with yourself and say, "This is just TV" or "This is just a movie," but I think also as an actor it's your job to find it so very important.

~Francois Arnaud

I still feel like I'm 19. We're old now!

~Francois Arnaud

I have never seen a ghost, no. Or I've buried it deep in my subconscious.
