Never waste any time you can spend sleeping.

~Frank Knight

In the long run all producers are forced to use the most efficient methods or give place to others who do.

~Frank Knight

Market competition is the only form of organization which can afford a large measure of freedom to the individual.

~Frank Knight

Knowledge is more a matter of learning than of the exercise of absolute judgment. Learning requires time, and in time the situation dealt with, as well as the learner, undergoes change.

~Frank Knight

Sociology is the science of talk, and there is only one law in sociology. Bad talk drives out good.

~Frank Knight

Costs merely register competing attractions.

~Frank Knight

There is no sense in making statements that will not continue to be true after they are made.

~Frank Knight

The truth seems . . . to be that in the ultimate and essential problem the economic factor is relatively superficial and unimportant.

~Frank Knight

All science is static in the sense that it describes the unchanging aspects of things.

~Frank Knight

We have to adapt and overcome, that's all we can do.

~Frank Knight

It is true practically if not altogether without exception that the changes studied by any science tend to equilibrate or neutralize the forces which bring them about, and finally to come to rest.

~Frank Knight

Goods move in response to price differences from points of low to points of higher price, the movement tending to obliterate the price difference and come to rest.

~Frank Knight

Conflicting economic interest is relatively unimportant as a cause of war.

~Frank Knight

Always history is being made; opinions attitudes and institutions change, and there is evolution in the nature of capitalism

~Frank Knight

...even professors of economics, to say nothing of the public, do not generally have scientific minds.

~Frank Knight

One-third of your plays are special teams, so to block a punt and get good field position out of it and score was big.

~Frank Knight
