I am a true psychic. In my family it's the norm. My sister and mother are always 'in my head' and say or do the same things I'm doing at the same time.

~Franny Armstrong

Silence is golden for me. I live in the country and hear only my pets, birds, crickets, and the wind in the trees.

~Franny Armstrong

I was about seven years old. In my mother's garage I used to create plays and star in them and charge the neighborhood kids five cents to see them. It was a lot of fun.

After I published my first book, my sister, known as Kali Willows, began writing. She fell as in love with it as I did. She has a number of short stories.

~Franny Armstrong

I have my favorite authors, but in reality, my mother did. Though she's never written a book, she paved the way for me to.

~Franny Armstrong

If you are an intelligent human being then you are interested in climate change because it's the most important issue of our time.

~Franny Armstrong

I am not interested in having somebody telling that what I have to water down my message or that some advertising person would not like it.

~Franny Armstrong

We have got a very short time to turn climate change around otherwise we will all die.

~Franny Armstrong

I've always loved J.R.R. Tolkein and recently, Christine Feehan and J.K.Rowling. There are many as I'm an avid reader, but those three come to the fore.

~Franny Armstrong

I relish the time I have when there are no interruptions. Most often the best time for writing is late at night.
