The reason why men do not look to the Church today is that she has destroyed her own influence by compromise.

~G. Campbell Morgan

The Church did the most when the Church was the least like the world.

~G. Campbell Morgan

What we do in the crisis always depends on whether we see the difficulties in the light of God, or God in the shadow of the difficulties.

~G. Campbell Morgan

The supreme need in every hour of difficulty and distress is for a fresh vision of God. Seeing Him, all else takes on proper perspective and proportion.

~G. Campbell Morgan

If you have no opposition in the place you serve, you're serving in the wrong place.

~G. Campbell Morgan

We cannot organize revival, but we can set our sails to catch the wind from Heaven when God chooses to blow upon His people once again

~G. Campbell Morgan

Holiness is not freedom from temptation, but power to overcome temptation.

~G. Campbell Morgan

The three essentials for great preaching are: truth, clarity, and passion.

~G. Campbell Morgan

The supreme thing is worship. The attitude of worship is the attitude of a subject bent before the King... The fundamental thought is that of prostration, of bowing down.

~G. Campbell Morgan

Prayer is life passionately wanting, wishing, desiring God's triumph. Prayer is life striving, toiling everywhere and everywhen for that ultimate victory.

~G. Campbell Morgan

The man who preaches the cross must be a crucified man.

~G. Campbell Morgan

The Jesus that men want to see is not the Jesus they really need to see.

~G. Campbell Morgan

The year is made up of minutes. Let these be watched as having been dedicated to God. It is in the sanctification of the small that hallowing of the large is secure.

~G. Campbell Morgan

Organized Christianity that fails to make a disturbance is dead.

~G. Campbell Morgan

How would you like to live with somebody who was everlastingly grieving your heart by his conduct?

~G. Campbell Morgan

A man's concept of God creates his attitude towards the hour in which he lives.

~G. Campbell Morgan

The prayer life does not consist of perpetual repetition of petitions. The prayer life consists of life that is always upward and onward and Godward

~G. Campbell Morgan

The whole life story of Jesus, on the human side, is the life story of One who lived by faith.

~G. Campbell Morgan

To serve the Word is to fulfill the highest function of which man is capable.

~G. Campbell Morgan

Oh, how strenuous is life! I know a little of it. Men "ought always to pray, and not to faint." How fierce the battle! I know something of the conflict, but I ought not to faint, because I can pray.

~G. Campbell Morgan

If the church is to be missionary, she must be spiritual; and if the church is to be spiritual, she must be missionary.

~G. Campbell Morgan

The purpose of God and the power of God is available for every man.

~G. Campbell Morgan

There are hours when the Church must say NO to those who should ask communion with her, in the doing of her work, upon the basis of compromise.

~G. Campbell Morgan

The man who does as he likes is the greatest slave. The man who never does as he likes is God's free man.

~G. Campbell Morgan

The world hates Christian people if they can see God in them.

~G. Campbell Morgan

To call a man evangelical who is not evangelistic is an utter contradiction.

~G. Campbell Morgan

Man is created for the glory of God.

~G. Campbell Morgan

Men ought not to faint because men ought to pray.

~G. Campbell Morgan

The severity of the law of God is the necessary sequence of his infinite love.

~G. Campbell Morgan

God is always at war with sin

~G. Campbell Morgan

The Scripture can only be read intelligently by inspired men and women. The value we get from our reading is in direct proportion to the measure in which we are filled with God's Spirit.

~G. Campbell Morgan

Prayer is life passionately wanting, wishing, desiring God's triumph.

~G. Campbell Morgan

The capacity for tears is the last demonstration of greatness.

~G. Campbell Morgan

Concerning the loved ones who have passed on ... do not try to make me believe that they are doing nothing, merely resting, careless ever. That would imply the condition of Hell, not of Heaven.

~G. Campbell Morgan

You cannot be a man of faith and live in a day. You do not live in a day if you are a man of faith.
