I kind of grew up in a commune, but it wasn't a hippie commune necessarily, but it was a big house with a lot of families, we all lived together and it was the 70s, whatever that means.

~Gabriel Mann

I never wanted to get caught in doing something that was really one note.

~Gabriel Mann

For most of my 20s, I looked like I was 12. Now that I'm pushing 40, I guess I look closer to... 15? It must be my macrobiotic diet. Oh, wait, except that I don't have one of those.

~Gabriel Mann

If we're talking music I could go on and on and on.

~Gabriel Mann

I wanted to be in an anti-gravity machine so bad! Maybe a different time, a different place.

~Gabriel Mann

I'm not going to lie. I would definitely steal stuff from set.

~Gabriel Mann

Anytime anybody does anything - unless it's in the realm of the obviously awful, which is fun too in a different way - it is in many ways a success.

~Gabriel Mann

I have a million story-lines for 'Revenge' and they never listen to me.

~Gabriel Mann

For me as an actor because I've been at it so long, it becomes much harder to watch movies because you really see the seams of everything.

~Gabriel Mann

It's funny, people talk about the characters they play and who do you sort of see yourself as or which ones maybe were closest to you and in some ways.

~Gabriel Mann

One thing I loved about New Zealand was the indoor/outdoor lifestyle of the place.

~Gabriel Mann

We've been talking about Lorde like crazy! She's amazing!
