If a jerk burns the flag, America is not threatened, democracy is not under siege, freedom is not at risk.

~Gary Ackerman

I'm in favor of immigration but we also need rules.

~Gary Ackerman

Sometimes people who are Jewish are held to a higher standard which sometimes we take great pride in.

~Gary Ackerman

We have to have some rules and regulations in America, or the world would empty out here.

~Gary Ackerman

The ability to convince people of the wackiest notions - and both parties can do it - it's part of the dumbing down of America that's really highly problematic.

~Gary Ackerman

Whether rich people make money or lose money, they get no sympathy from the public.

~Gary Ackerman

We're not looking at banning all weapons.

~Gary Ackerman

India is a regional power. It does not need anything to establish it.

~Gary Ackerman

Politics was my third act. But I could have a fourth. I don't know what that will be yet, but there will be one.

~Gary Ackerman

Telling people not to have children is unthinkable and inhumane.

~Gary Ackerman

The media's gotten lazy. They don't check anything out. You report what he reports.

~Gary Ackerman

Using official government resources to help bankroll an explicit political agenda - whether on the right or left - is flat out wrong.

~Gary Ackerman

I am always fascinated by India.

~Gary Ackerman

Sometimes in order to make progress and move ahead, you have to stand up and do the wrong thing.

~Gary Ackerman

Patriots don't let their nation default.

~Gary Ackerman

Every gun sold should require a background check, period.

~Gary Ackerman

It used to be you had real friends on the other side of the aisle. Its not like that anymore. Society has changed. The public is to blame as well. I think the people have gotten dumber.
