The victims of injustice in our world do not need our spasms of passion; they need our long obedience in the same direction - our legs and lungs of endurance; And we need sturdy stores of joy.

~Gary Haugen

Justice is doing for others what we would want done for us.

~Gary Haugen

Nothing happens just because we are aware of modern day slavery, but nothing will ever happen until we are.

~Gary Haugen

God has a plan to help bring justice to the world - and his plan is us.

~Gary Haugen

If you're wrestling with some sort of decision, reflect for a moment and ask yourself, Am I being brave, or am I being safe? In the end, it depends on whether we think God can be trusted.

~Gary Haugen

Jesus wants to give you five things: extravagant compassion, moral clarity, sacrificial courage, persevering hope, and refreshing joy.

~Gary Haugen

There is an awesome God of justice who is ready to move in power if you move in obedience.

~Gary Haugen

God does not give His people a ministry for which He does not give them the power to do it.

~Gary Haugen

Victims of oppression & injustice don't need our spasm of passion....they need our legs & lungs of endurance.

~Gary Haugen

One of the biggest regrets of life, I think, is a sense of having gone on the trip but missed the adventure.

~Gary Haugen

We can help the work of justice by preparing for a marathon, not a sprint. A long obedience in the same direction

~Gary Haugen

Decide justice is worthy and refuse to go away.

~Gary Haugen

Let us start with the biggest no brainer of injustice in the world and that is slavery.

~Gary Haugen

Leaders lead out of who they are on the inside.

~Gary Haugen

We must start talking differently about poverty--and start doing something differently.

~Gary Haugen

God does His miracles of transformation through miraculously transformed people.
