I think very fundamentally to being Libertarian is not having a social agenda. I accept who you are and the life that you live as long as your life does not adversely affect mine.

~Gary Johnson

I don't believe there should be any restrictions when it comes to firearms. None.

~Gary Johnson

A wasted vote is voting for someone that you don't believe in

~Gary Johnson

My next door neighbor's two dogs have created more shovel-ready jobs than this current administration.

~Gary Johnson

Republicans are horrible with civil liberties, and not so good with dollars and cents. Democrats are horrible with dollars and cents, and not so good with civil liberties.

~Gary Johnson

As I told the students every time I visited a campus, you are the director of your own movie, and if you aren't enjoying what you are doing, change it.

~Gary Johnson

90% of the problem with marijuana is prohibition related, not use related.

~Gary Johnson

Regardless of who wins, an election should be a time for optimism and fresh approaches.

~Gary Johnson

Life's a party. Invite yourself.

~Gary Johnson

I don't smoke marijuana anymore. I don't drink. Marijuana is a handicap. So is alcohol. Alcohol is a terrible handicap. But in spite of being a handicap, it shouldn't be criminal.

~Gary Johnson

Immigration is a good thing. We should make that as easy as possible.

~Gary Johnson

We're on the verge of a financial collapse unless we balance the budget, and that means some really, really tough decisions.

~Gary Johnson

Let's end the unworkable marijuana prohibition and put our money where our mouth is. Let's solve the problems like border crime. We can do it with pot legalization.

~Gary Johnson

Pot smokers may be the largest untapped voting bloc in the country. ... A hundred million Americans have smoked marijuana. You think they want to be considered criminals?

~Gary Johnson

I'm asked, what about criminal prosecution of those on wall street? You know what, it's probably because none of them committed any crimes. They just made some incredibly bad decisions.

~Gary Johnson

How simple life is. We buy a fish. We are fed. We sit close to each other, we talk and then we go to bed.

~Gary Johnson

Regardless of my legislation, spending has to be stopped.

~Gary Johnson

The current prohibition laws are forcing drug disputes to be played out with guns in our streets. We need to put a stop to this criminal drug element in our country.

~Gary Johnson

It's not 2038 that Social Security is bankrupt. It's now.

~Gary Johnson

I think libertarians need somebody who can articulate getting from A to Z. But you know, if G is achievable, how about it? Let's get there!

~Gary Johnson

Ron Paul's revolution isn't a fluke. It's the future.

~Gary Johnson

Having a debate right now over whether or not to legalize marijuana is kind of like having a debate over whether the sun will come up tomorrow.

~Gary Johnson

The excitement right now is coming from the Liberty movement. And the Republicans want a piece of it.

~Gary Johnson

Too many Americans have lost faith in our approach to the war on drugs.

~Gary Johnson

I'm absolutely a Ron Paul fan.

~Gary Johnson

I had a 'Mr. Smith Goes to Washington' experience as governor.
