Couples don't fall out of love so much as they fall out of repentance.

~Gary L. Thomas

A good marriage isn't something you find; it's something you make.

~Gary L. Thomas

We bring nothing to God, and He gives us everything.

~Gary L. Thomas

Fear is intensified by passionate love. The more I care about someone, the more I'm concerned about their welfare. The less we have to lose, in one sense, the easier it is to be "brave."

~Gary L. Thomas

A defeatist attitude kills almost as many marriages as do affairs.

~Gary L. Thomas

Any mature, spiritually sensitive view of marriage must be built on the foundation of mature love rather than romanticism. But this immediately casts us into a countercultural pursuit.

~Gary L. Thomas

Christian love must be chased after, aspired to, and practiced.

~Gary L. Thomas

A Christian is never dependent on the response of others to grow spiritually. It's our own heart's decisions that matter

~Gary L. Thomas

Done well, marital sexuality can be a supremely healing experience.

~Gary L. Thomas

The older I get the more I realize that a significant portion of a parent's happiness or sadness in middle-age will be directly impacted by how closely our children are walking with the Lord.

~Gary L. Thomas

Our children may, at times, make parenting very difficult. Sometimes, we might be tempted to say, "Fine, I'm done with you!" But God is never done with them and we're still called to be their parents.

~Gary L. Thomas

Having children made me confront my true fears and trust in God many times over in a much more intensified manner.
