I am terrible at video games and I am really competitive. And if I am not the best at something, I go absolutely crazy!

~Gemma Arterton

I always thought I was going to end up an old spinster, with my cats and fur coats.

~Gemma Arterton

I don't want to be about the way I look - my body, my hair, my makeup, all those boring things.

~Gemma Arterton

I was in lots of dodgy bands growing up and I always fancied myself in a band. But, you know, I was rubbish at writing music. So maybe one day I'll play a rock star, or punk rocker.

~Gemma Arterton

When I go home, everyone's very proud. I get recognized the most when I go back to my hometown, but it's in a really sweet way. They're just very proud and supportive.

~Gemma Arterton

I've never understood people that sleep around. I think there's something very lacking in your life when you do, not to be judgmental.

~Gemma Arterton

I have this attitude to life that is not to take anything too seriously and not worry about anything, and when I met him I wasn't too nervous and I was being myself.

~Gemma Arterton

My family are very down-to-earth people. We are not showbizzy at all.

~Gemma Arterton

I was quite naughty at school.

~Gemma Arterton

I actually had a cockney accent before I went to drama school. It's softened up a bit.

~Gemma Arterton

I love strange things; my favorite movies are weird, eclectic, and intriguing.

~Gemma Arterton

I was born with lots of deformities.

~Gemma Arterton

It's interesting for me to always make myself look very different.

~Gemma Arterton

I'm quite a physical person and I gesticulate a lot, which can be a problem when you're in Hollywood and they do everything in a minimalist way.

~Gemma Arterton

You can't connect with something you're not passionate about.

~Gemma Arterton

Sometimes, I feel that if you're a strong, independent woman it scares people away, but actually it does the opposite.

~Gemma Arterton

Music is my biggest passion aside from anything else.

~Gemma Arterton

I've worked on jobs where there are almost 200 people on set... you always make an effort to have a relationship but you can't really when there's 200.

~Gemma Arterton

I think, for me, I'm always more interested in the process of making the movie than the movie itself

~Gemma Arterton

I think when you write an enigmatic character into a film, you have to have real confidence that the audience are going to go with it.

~Gemma Arterton

I'm kind of a chatty person and the props guys would have to handcuff me and tie me up and sometimes I'd just be chatting and they'd just pop it back in... like: "OK now, shut up!"

~Gemma Arterton

The films that I go to see at the cinema are not Hollywood blockbusters particularly. I've not got anything against them... I'm in them! But I don't go and spend my money on them.

~Gemma Arterton

I think my favorite is Honor Blackman because she is classy and she is British. With Bond, I love how British it is actually. She is classy and clever and smart and sharp.

~Gemma Arterton

There was one day where I had to be hysterical all day, then of course it's going to affect you. You're going to go home and feel drained, or feel like you need to let off steam.

~Gemma Arterton

My family was never cultural in that we never went to see plays, my mum wasn't very into films.

~Gemma Arterton
