Sometimes there are things worth risking your life for. It was Jesus who said if you want to save your life, you have to lose it.

~Gene Robinson

I think there's a terrible price to be paid when your exterior life is not an honest reflection of your interior life.

~Gene Robinson

I think people often come to the synagogue, mosque, the church looking for God, and what we give them is religion.

~Gene Robinson

We love to talk about justice. It's the doing of justice that's hard...I believe it is work we are called to do

~Gene Robinson

Only God is the same yesterday, today and tomorrow. The Church has always been changing.

~Gene Robinson

The bees learn where they live by landmarks. If they're moved within their home range, they get confused.

~Gene Robinson

I will always speak out when someone says that a principle or a rule or a tradition trumps people.

~Gene Robinson

When you claim to have the truth, as opposed to the truth as you perceive it, then you move us toward a theocratic view of government.

~Gene Robinson

Left to our own devices and passions, we human beings have a hard time seeing beyond what is immediately in front of us.

~Gene Robinson

Historically speaking, institutions are slow to change and usually resistant to any sudden moves - churches especially so.

~Gene Robinson

I've long been really intrigued with what is the ... proper role of faith and religion in public life.

~Gene Robinson

I'll be at Lambeth telling my story

~Gene Robinson

Stability is why society has an interest in marriage.
