In fact, Cannonball Run II. I used to pick that as the worst movie ever made.

~Gene Siskel

That's probably when I get the most angry at American movies, when they just so cynically manipulate the audience without even trying to give a good story.

~Gene Siskel

Is this film more interesting than a documentary of the same actors having lunch?

~Gene Siskel

I'm not surprised that Spielberg was able to capture the heroism of Schindler; so many of his movies are about the better part of mankind.

~Gene Siskel

The result is a picture that represents so much of what I want and rarely get from a movie - a couple of hours filled with characters who are as exciting as the people I know in real life.

~Gene Siskel

There is a point when a personal opinion shades off into an error of fact.

~Gene Siskel

Two things are not debatable: eroticism, and comedy. If you don't think it's sexy, or funny, there's no way I can change your mind.

~Gene Siskel

John Goodman is more than just a big guy, he's a wonderful actor.

~Gene Siskel

They know they got the TV ad, they know they got the name recognition, they know that they can do a tie in with McDonald's or some fast food outlet and the money is just gonna flow in.

~Gene Siskel

A film that aims low should not be praised for hitting that target.

~Gene Siskel

But you know, really, if you think about it Roger and I and all critics really have one absolute essential part of our credentials and that is that you believe that that is actually what we think.

~Gene Siskel

I would rather turn my head and cough than see any part of 'Patch Adams' again.

~Gene Siskel

The only actor who I think probably might have possibly taken a swing at me if he could have would be Burt Reynolds. He used to call Roger and me the Bruise Brothers, out of Chicago.

~Gene Siskel

We don't pretend to disagree.

~Gene Siskel

I already shot my wad on the Protestants!
