Light makes photography. Embrace light. Admire it. Love it. But above all, know light. Know it for all you are worth, and you will know the key to photography.

~George Eastman

Suicide note. "To my friends. My work is done why wait?"

~George Eastman

A good reputation is measured by how much you can improve the lives of others.

~George Eastman

What we do during our working hours determines what we have; what we do in our leisure hours determines what we are.

~George Eastman

The progress of the world depends almost entirely upon education.

~George Eastman

The rich man never really gives anything, he only distributes part of the surplus. It is the person of moderate means who really gives.

~George Eastman

The world is moving, and a company that contents itself with present accomplishments soon falls behind.

~George Eastman

You push the button, we do the rest.

~George Eastman

I don't believe in men waiting until they are ready to die before using any of their money for helpful purposes.

~George Eastman

I wouldn't give a dime for all the possibilities of [motion pictures with sound]. The public will never accept it.

~George Eastman

Men who leave their money to be distributed by others are pie-faced mutts.

~George Eastman

Light makes photography. Embrace light.

~George Eastman

I used to think that music was like lace upon a garment, nice to have but not necessary. I have come to believe that music is absolutely essential to our community life.
