I wouldn't even have braces on my teeth. I think they are horrible and this idea that everyone should conform and be perfect is ridiculous.

~Georgia May Jagger

I love to shop vintage clothes; in London, I usually go to Relic and Alfie's Market. I usually brunch around London Bridge, where I live.

~Georgia May Jagger

Drink lots of water, get lots of sleep, and take vitamin C!

~Georgia May Jagger

Round, cat-eye frames, wayfarers, and aviators are my go-tos.

~Georgia May Jagger

I didn't want to miss out on my education to model. I can't do just modeling.

~Georgia May Jagger

I like to do a face steam, so, heat up a flannel, press it onto your face and then press a cold one on afterwards to close the pores. It's inexpensive!

~Georgia May Jagger

Music creates a certain mood and then people dress accordingly. I think it's all quite closely intertwined.

~Georgia May Jagger

Even when my parents were together, they both had to travel and work, and it wasn't like they had nine-to-five jobs. In that way, it wasn't a normal family life.

~Georgia May Jagger

I think music influences fashion and has done so for generations.

~Georgia May Jagger

I really never thought about the way I looked until boys came into the picture.

~Georgia May Jagger

I really like doing portraits, but I like taking pictures of things that are natural, like scenery, too.

~Georgia May Jagger

I am not about fringing, cow girl boots, that kind of Coachella vibe. I just wear something comfortable.

~Georgia May Jagger

I think all the stuff that happens before the pictures are taken is much more exciting.

~Georgia May Jagger

I like the fact that I have good old-fashioned British teeth with a big gap.

~Georgia May Jagger

My dad has more sparkly stuff than most men.

~Georgia May Jagger

My friends call me George, GM, or Georgia. But most people who know me from when I was little call me Georgia May.

~Georgia May Jagger

I do have bad hair days. If I fall asleep with it slightly damp, I wake up and it'll all be piled up on top in a mess.

~Georgia May Jagger

I wear high heels for long legs.

~Georgia May Jagger

There's this whole idea of perfection. What young girls don't realize is that these girls do have problems. It's good for people to realize everyone is human.

~Georgia May Jagger

I think when your parents are as rebellious as mine were, it's difficult to top them. So what's the point?

~Georgia May Jagger

I have to exfoliate my lips as they're quite a large surface area and sometimes when I wear lipstick, it goes all cakey. So I mix brown sugar with lip balm and just scrub it onto them.

~Georgia May Jagger

Modeling is always something I've really admired because I've seen my mum and sister do it.

~Georgia May Jagger

My dad let me figure out what I wanted to do on my own.

~Georgia May Jagger

~Georgia May Jagger

My dad's supportive of all my endeavors.

~Georgia May Jagger

I'd love to do a fashion label in the future. I've been thinking a lot recently about maybe making a line of little dresses, so maybe one day.

~Georgia May Jagger

I think if everyone looked the same, it would be a bit boring.

~Georgia May Jagger

My dad's cool with that kind of stuff. He always wanted me to do my best. I'm quite dyslexic in school. My dad let me figure out what I wanted to do on my own. My parents never really lecture me.

~Georgia May Jagger

Basically, my hair is very dry from all the backcombing! Hairdressers prefer if your hair is dry and damaged, as it makes it easier to style.

~Georgia May Jagger

I always see those jeans with the stretchy front on pregnant women, and they look like the dreamiest thing ever.

~Georgia May Jagger

When I was about 12 and first started wearing lipstick, my dad would ask, 'Are you wearing makeup?' I would say back, 'You're wearing more makeup there than I am!'

~Georgia May Jagger
