I am a control freak.

~Georgina Chapman

I always go to the Cannes Film Festival and it's just such a glamorous time.

~Georgina Chapman

Bridesmaids are never going to upstage the bride.

~Georgina Chapman

I love vintage and prints.

~Georgina Chapman

I'm actually an incredibly disorganized, messy person.

~Georgina Chapman

Sometimes if I can't sleep and I am up in the night, I will start researching things - it could be an image I've seen, or a book I am reading.

~Georgina Chapman

My great-grandfather was in the army in India, and we have photographs of my family there in full Victorian dress. They're incredibly romantic.

~Georgina Chapman

My wedding was at home, so I didn't really want to wear a veil in my house. Instead I wore a lot of diamond hair clips. They were brooches, actually, designed by Lorraine Schwartz.

~Georgina Chapman

I love imagining being someone else in another time.

~Georgina Chapman

I love children. I've always loved children.

~Georgina Chapman

It's good to talk to people and get ideas.

~Georgina Chapman

My family is my number one priority.

~Georgina Chapman

My mother says I'm like a disease that can walk into a room and get it infected. I can destroy things in seconds.

~Georgina Chapman

New York is very career-orientated and it's hard to take time off here, but that is great for building a business.

~Georgina Chapman

It's funny, because I sometimes feel that I'm most creative when I'm pregnant.

~Georgina Chapman

The Indians have such strong traditions and aesthetics, and the people are beautiful, as are their goods.

~Georgina Chapman

What I love about my husband is that he really allows me to be the best person I can.

~Georgina Chapman

If you've chosen someone to be in your bridal party, she should be a good enough friend that she does not want to upstage you.

~Georgina Chapman

I'm an enormous fan of Ron Howard. I mean, he's the most extraordinary director.

~Georgina Chapman

I always have a camera now that I've got a kid, but I don't think I've got one picture of anyone other than my daughter.

~Georgina Chapman

I make sure I carve out time to be with my daughter.

~Georgina Chapman

I went camping in the Maasai Mara and we moved site every night. I had no idea how spectacular it would be, how removed from ordinary life, or how many animals we would see.

~Georgina Chapman

I think it's very empowering to be able to have a career and to be a mother. It gives you an amazing sense of self.

~Georgina Chapman

We don't leave home without my daughter's doll La-La. She looks like a bit of a rag, but India is obsessed with her.

~Georgina Chapman

I'm a designer, not a businesswoman.

~Georgina Chapman

When I got pregnant, I became very interested in natural products. You wonder what you're putting on your skin when you're carrying a child.

~Georgina Chapman

I look much more civilized than I actually am.

~Georgina Chapman

I enjoyed studying costume, learning about the corsetry and the historical context of fashion. I never had any real intention of being a costume designer.
