There are those who say maybe I should forget about football. Maybe I should forget about breathing.

~Gerard Houllier

Liverpool players must play like a lion, give his all. There must be determination, commitment and resolve to be a Liverpool player.

~Gerard Houllier

You can't say my team aren't winners. They've proved that by finishing fourth, third and second in the last three years.

~Gerard Houllier

I used to stand on the Kop when I was here in 1969. The atmosphere and passion on the pitch as well as the terraces was intoxicating and Liverpool became part of me from that day on.

~Gerard Houllier

My philosophy is that the club is more important than anyone!

~Gerard Houllier

We don't destroy our heroes today when we worshipped them yesterday.

~Gerard Houllier

Today you play for a place in history, today you play for immortality.

~Gerard Houllier

Our job is to make the fans happy. When we win, 45,000 people go home happy. When we lose, it not only affects them, it affects their cats.

~Gerard Houllier

We don't have any splits here. The players country is Liverpool Football Club and their language is football.

~Gerard Houllier

It is important for the club to find a balance in a world driven by economic and political needs. This club usually does that [on leaving Liverpool]

~Gerard Houllier

You can't build a cathedral in a day. A look at the club's history tells you these things take time.

~Gerard Houllier

Players have responsibilities, because, whether they like it or not, they are public figures. They have to be aware that the people who come to the ground spend fortunes in relation to what they earn.

~Gerard Houllier

I want to keep an English heart to the team. I believe in that. Michael Owen is that. Never think Michael is afraid of anything.

~Gerard Houllier

The England manager job is not for me - I'm very happy with what I'm doing in French football for now.
