Wisdom and peace come when you start living the life the creator intended for you.

~Geronimo

I should never have surrendered. I should have fought until I was the last man alive.

~Geronimo

I was born on the prairies where the wind blew free and there was nothing to break the light of the sun. I was born where there were no enclosures.

~Geronimo

I was no chief and never had been, but because I had been more deeply wronged than others, this honor was conferred upon me, and I resolved to prove worthy of the trust.

~Geronimo

While living I want to live well.

~Geronimo

The soldiers never explained to the government when an Indian was wronged, but reported the misdeeds of the Indians.

~Geronimo

We are vanishing from the earth, yet I cannot think we are useless or else Usen would not have created us. He created all tribes of men and certainly had a righteous purpose in creating each.

~Geronimo

I will protect my people if I live. For myself I do not fear for I have the word of Usen. Who is the White Nantan to think he can pit his power against that of Usen?

~Geronimo

Since my life as a prisoner has begun I have heard the teachings of the white man's religion, and in many respects believe it to be better than the religion of my fathers

~Geronimo

I was born where there were no enclosures.

~Geronimo

I was warmed by the sun, rocked by the winds and sheltered by the trees as other Indian babes. I can go everywhere with a good feeling.

~Geronimo
