We may run, walk, stumble, drive, or fly, but let us never lose sight of the reason for the journey or miss a chance to see a rainbow on the way.

~Gloria Gaither

God walks with us. He scoops us up in His arms or simply sits with us in silent strength until we cannot avoid the awesome recognition that yes, even now, He is there.

~Gloria Gaither

Satan labels you. God names you.

~Gloria Gaither

God must have said, "I know what I'll do, I'll send my Love right down there where they are. And I'll send it as a tiny baby, so they'll have to touch it, and they'll have to hold it close."

~Gloria Gaither

How beautiful it is to learn that Grace isn't fragile, and that in the family of God we can fail and not be a failure.

~Gloria Gaither

There may be no trumpet sound or loud applause when we make a right decision, just a calm sense of resolution and peace.

~Gloria Gaither

If we just give God the little that we have, we can trust Him to make it go around.

~Gloria Gaither

Memories, important yesterdays, were once today's. Treasure and notice today.

~Gloria Gaither

Love is the seed of all hope. It is the enticement to trust, to risk, to try, to go on.

~Gloria Gaither

The things that matter the most in this world, they can never be held in our hand.

~Gloria Gaither

Memories are perhaps the best gifts of all.

~Gloria Gaither

We need the whole song, all the verses and the choruses to serve us as our own story unfolds because- trust me- life is hard, but God is good.

~Gloria Gaither

Tradition gives us a sense of solidarity and roots, a knowing there are some things one can count on.

~Gloria Gaither

There is something in every season, in every day, to celebrate with thanksgiving.

~Gloria Gaither

With each new experience of letting God be in control, we gain courage and reinforcement for daring to do it again and again.

~Gloria Gaither

When I look at where I've been, I see that what I am becoming is a whole lot further down the road from where I was.

~Gloria Gaither

What will your children remember? Moments spent listening, talking, playing and sharing together may be the most important times of all.

~Gloria Gaither

I'm not what I want to be. I'm not what I'm going to be. But, thank God, I'm not what I was!

~Gloria Gaither

There are times when I draw near enough to touch Him, then I know that He has been there all the time

~Gloria Gaither

When we read of the great Biblical leaders, we see that it was not uncommon for God to ask them to wait, not just a day or two, but for years, until God was ready for them to act.

~Gloria Gaither

Line by line, moment by moment, special times are etched into our memories in the permanent ink of everlasting love in our relationships.

~Gloria Gaither

Scripture has always been a part of my life. My dad was a pastor. My mother was a speaker, writer, and teacher. I memorized Scripture from the time I was little.

~Gloria Gaither

In working with people across the country and around the world, I've come to know that most of us go through times that re-route our prayer life.

~Gloria Gaither

I hear people say, "It's not the quantity of time that's important; it's the quality." Well, technically that may be true, but quality doesn't happen in a hurry.
