The power of one, if fearless and focused, is formidable, but the power of many working together is better.

~Gloria Macapagal Arroyo

Now I ask you to make your sacrifice. Take a gamble. I took the plunge and I'm glad of it.

~Gloria Macapagal Arroyo

Optimism is infectious, and opportunity irresistible. Progress follows progress. Someone, even government, just has to get it started.

~Gloria Macapagal Arroyo

I will follow my father's footsteps by doing what is right, and God will take care of the rest. My father is my role model. My living role model is Cory Aquino.

~Gloria Macapagal Arroyo

Its never right to fight terror with terror.

~Gloria Macapagal Arroyo

We must promote solid traits such as work ethics, a dignified lifestyle, matching actions to rhetoric, performance rather than grandstanding.

~Gloria Macapagal Arroyo

I want justice to be so pervasive that it will be taken for granted, just as injustice is taken for granted today.

~Gloria Macapagal Arroyo

I feel that if I am freed of the burden of politics, then I can do more and I can take more unpopular decisions. I can have as my guidance for decision whatever is right, not whatever is popular.

~Gloria Macapagal Arroyo

I believe that the war against terrorism and the war against poverty in these times of turmoil go together. So you - when you fight one, you have to fight the other.

~Gloria Macapagal Arroyo

I'm not worried. I'm in control.

~Gloria Macapagal Arroyo

Filipino businessmen must have the ability to compete freely in the global economy.

~Gloria Macapagal Arroyo

I follow my father's philosophy; 'Do what is good, do what is right, and God will take care of the rest.'

~Gloria Macapagal Arroyo

I sow; my successor reaps. This is the majesty of democracy.

~Gloria Macapagal Arroyo

In the time one is given, the steward must make the most of the talents one is given by the Lord.

~Gloria Macapagal Arroyo

It is simply the truth that the political system that I am part of has degenerated to the point that it needs fundamental change.

~Gloria Macapagal Arroyo

In the harshest possible terms, I condemn political killings.

~Gloria Macapagal Arroyo

We have the hardest working people in the world, the most adaptable and the most congenial to employ.

~Gloria Macapagal Arroyo

While there's been much progress on terrorism, there's still much work to do and it is very important that the countries work together in order to address this threat together.

~Gloria Macapagal Arroyo

The military is faithful to the constitution. They will come in only to protect the people from the enemies of the state.

~Gloria Macapagal Arroyo

In a global arena, what our businessmen need in order to be competitive is transparency and a level playing-field.

~Gloria Macapagal Arroyo

I want ordinary people to enjoy a decent standard of living, with ever increasing security, comfort and joy.

~Gloria Macapagal Arroyo

Over the years, our political system has degenerated to the extent that it's difficult for anyone to make any headway, yet keep his hands clean.

~Gloria Macapagal Arroyo

The Philippines has no policy that demands sacrifice of human lives.

~Gloria Macapagal Arroyo

The Philippines was with the U.S. in the Second World War, in the Korean War, in the Vietnam War, and now in the war against terrorism.

~Gloria Macapagal Arroyo

The military is very constitutionalist, and I have my faith in them and in the cooler heads of the people.

~Gloria Macapagal Arroyo

I was invited by President Bush to come to the United States on the occasion of the 50th anniversary of the mutual defense treaty.

~Gloria Macapagal Arroyo

It is the civilian part of the politics that is very, very bad, and we have to change that.

~Gloria Macapagal Arroyo

A president can be as strong as she wants to be.
