It's not that we use technology, we live technology.

~Godfrey Reggio

I think it's naive to pray for world peace if we're not going to change the form in which we live.

~Godfrey Reggio

Technology has become as ubiquitous as the air we breathe, so we are no longer conscious of its presence.

~Godfrey Reggio

Mystery is gone to the certainty of technological principles. So the real terror, the real aggression against life comes in the form of the pursuit of our technological happiness.

~Godfrey Reggio

What I'm trying to do is to at least raise a flag to the blinding light of technology.

~Godfrey Reggio

In effect, I feel like a blind, deaf, and illiterate person working through the sensibilities and multiple, real talents of other people. Everything I do is collaborative.

~Godfrey Reggio

So, not for lack of love of language, but because I feel our language is in an enormous state of humiliation, I decided to make films without words.

~Godfrey Reggio

I think there's an enormous value to being negative. The world we live in today, negativity is not permitted.

~Godfrey Reggio

But in fact if you look at film as a metaphor, only through the negative can you have the positive print. What I'm trying to get to is the positive value of negation.

~Godfrey Reggio

Having been an educator for so many years I know that all a good teacher can do is set a context, raise questions or enter into a kind of a dialogic relationship with their students.

~Godfrey Reggio

So to hope to be able to have peace, to be able to have justice and environmental balance, are consequences of our behavior, not just our intentions.

~Godfrey Reggio

Technology is not neutral.

~Godfrey Reggio

I think it's the tragedy of our time that we're not aware of the affect of the manner in which we've adopted tools. Those tools have become who we are.

~Godfrey Reggio

All tools have intrinsic politics and technology is the tool of now.

~Godfrey Reggio

History has been the history of warfare.

~Godfrey Reggio

The only thing I can do is type. I learned that when I was 13.
