I'd very much like to create my own style as a photographer, even if it's just for myself.

~Graeme Le Saux

We spent a lot of time on the beach when I was young so I'd also take pictures of seaweed and crabs.

~Graeme Le Saux

Why go now? That is the question people asked when I announced I was retiring. A combination of things made me feel it was all drawing to a natural end.

The opening ceremony was good, although I missed it.

~Graeme Le Saux

What it all boils down to for me is having the enthusiasm to do something for enjoyment and being stimulated by what's around you. That's what photography does for me.

I've never put myself in the mindset that I'm actually any good at taking pictures, I just love to shoot things that catch my eye, whether it's landscapes or just my kids.

~Graeme Le Saux

In the last year my wife has noticed me struggling to get downstairs on a Sunday morning. I've two young children and football has been so good to me over the years I don't want to spoil it.

~Graeme Le Saux

When you're walking onto a bus and trying to get there before the person in front of you, that's a different level of competition than playing in front of 80,000 people.

Ramires is involved in everything he does.

~Graeme Le Saux

You need to be an adrenalin junkie when you travel with kids.

~Graeme Le Saux

My wife Mariana is a good photographer too and, like me, she just picks up a camera and takes a picture when she sees something, rather than looking too deeply into it.

When you live by the sea, there are definite seasons when you can see the weather coming and going, which lends itself to photography.

Keith Gillespie just lacks a little bit of inconsistency.

He's started anticipating what's going to happen before it's even happened.
