You don't become a new person by changing your behavior; you discover who you are in Christ and your behavior changes accordingly

~Graham Cooke

Problems are invitations. They allow us to have encounters and experiences that enable us to discover who God is for us.

~Graham Cooke

Mediocrity is always invisible until passion shows up and exposes it.

~Graham Cooke

When God's putting His finger on the part of your life that's not working, He's pointing to your next miracle.

~Graham Cooke

Learn to walk in God's perception of who you are, because yours is not good enough.

~Graham Cooke

Do not look for evil. Look for the goodness of God all around you. As you look for signs of His Presence, many more opportunities will occur for you to bless people and share God's true nature.

~Graham Cooke

Your primary calling is to worship ... to pursue celebration and rejoicing as a way of life.

~Graham Cooke

The problem is not our situation but our perception of our situation

~Graham Cooke

He is not seeking a powerful people to represent Him. Rather, He looks for all those who are weak, foolish, despised, and written off: and He inhabits them with His own strength.

~Graham Cooke

It is in our DNA to create space, to open up safe places, and to change the atmosphere where we live.

~Graham Cooke

Prayer, in it's simplest form, is finding out what God wants to do and then asking Him to do it.

~Graham Cooke

There is no greatness apart from self control. Development that does not include self government will only guarantee our mediocrity.

~Graham Cooke

God allows in His wisdom what He could easily prevent by His power.

~Graham Cooke

The whole point about thinking brilliantly is about knowing your identity and the favor you have in Christ

~Graham Cooke

It is part of our inheritance to be, above all, secure and confident in the will of God.

~Graham Cooke

I think God loves to speak to us prophetically, because there are a number of things which happen when you receive a prophecy.
