It's about you. If you win, it's you; if you lose, it's you. Black and white. Nowhere to hide.

~Greg Rusedski

The downside isn't really injury, fear of injury or the process of fighting back from injury. The downside, the very worst thing in the world, is surgery.

~Greg Rusedski

You win any which way you can. You do what you have to do to get by. That's the way it works in any job.

~Greg Rusedski

Basically, it's just fatigue, ... I've run out of gas a little bit. I've played a lot this summer, and the body's just telling me I'm fatigued.

~Greg Rusedski

I'm really looking forward to getting back and winning some matches but I'm not thinking about the U.S. Open yet, just getting through my first match.

~Greg Rusedski

If I stay healthy and I'm playing good tennis I have as good a chance as anybody.

~Greg Rusedski

I don't read all the newspapers.

~Greg Rusedski

It is a big adjustment but I've always loved that old saying of Jack Nicklaus: 'I retired from golf to go to work.' That sums it up for me.

~Greg Rusedski

My biggest problem will be lack of match toughness but I am a positive, optimistic person.

~Greg Rusedski

I'm happy in retirement.

~Greg Rusedski

When you're young, you don't know what you don't know, so it's easier to get into that magical thing.

~Greg Rusedski

The only way to get back the confidence is to play and win matches. You can practise as much as you like, but you need confidence that comes from playing and winning matches.

~Greg Rusedski

It's not a break until you hold your serve.

~Greg Rusedski

I just look back on my season [2004] as a year where I've had to prove myself. I've had to fight all the way through to the end.
